WHEN Celtic manager Jock Stein promises the fans a 'classic game' then you can settle back and expect something special . . .

And that's exactly what we can look forward to this afternoon because this is a game that the Celtic boss expects to throw up all that is best in Scottish football.

I don't think many people would disagree with the Parkhead manager, either when you look at the teams who line up in opposition to each other this afternoon.

CELTIC . . . for so long the proud apostles of attacking football both here at home and on the Continent.

DUNDEE . . . whose skill is simply taken for granted whenever talks turn to the graceful Tayside teams of today or yesterday.

This season they have met five times, Dundee winning twice, each time on their own Dens Park, while Celtic have won the other three games. The finest Celtic victory of the three was of course, here at Hampden. That was early in the season in the League Cup when they won 4-0.

The games, usually, are closer than that one was, and they are so often games packed with flowing and exciting football.

With Celtic moving swiftly into their attacks while Dundee, in contrast, build up more gracefully.

But always skill and flair are the qualities that shine through in these encounters.

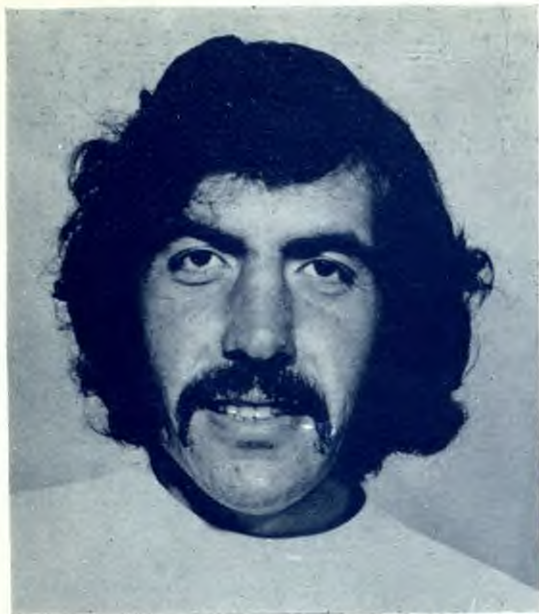

BILLY McNEILL
the Celtic skipper and the man who led them to European Cup success in season 1967.

Celtic can parade so many stars from the veteran captain Billy McNeill to their newest candidate for international honours, full back Danny McGrain. They also have the goal scoring potential of Dixie Deans, whose Scottish Cup goals are becoming a Parkhead legend, and the explosive talents of Kenny Dalglish.

Above all, of course, they have a blend of attacking skills which have dominated Scottish football for the last eight years . . . from the time, in fact, that Jock Stein took over as manager.

Dundee do not have the background and tradition in the Scottish Cup that Celtic bring to Hampden with them. The Dens Parkers have never been spectacularly successful in the Cup—with just one victory more than sixty years ago!

What they do have is a reputation for elegance, a flair for the finer arts of the game . . . and this season, at least, they can add a lethal touch. For in John Duncan the Tayside team have Scotland's most successful striker. The tall centre forward has scored more than forty goals this year—and two of them were on this ground quite recently. These goals earned the Scottish League a draw against the English League and must give Duncan confidence for today.

THOMSON ALLAN

WHITE... DESPERATE TO PROVE HIS POINT

DAVIE White has no illusions.

Victory over Celtic today would be most welcome, but he knows full well the immensity of the task which lies ahead.

This season, Dundee have had the unique experience of beating Celtic twice . . . once in the League, the other in the League Cup and that alone gives them confidence.

As a Clyde player he once reached the semi-final of the Scottish, only to be beaten by Kilmarnock. As Clyde manager he took them to the semi again—only to be beaten by Celtic.

It's been said that Dundee are probably the best footballing side in the country but they are not hard enough. And that's something which really annoys the former Rangers' boss.

He says, "Dundee are fighting all the time to be competitive . . . to match the big names. I want players of ability in my side, not hard men. But they must be competitive to survive." But with a skipper like Doug Houston and midfield star, Jocky Scott, goalkeeper, Thomson Allan and leading goalscorer John Duncan, he considers his team have a very good chance of upsetting Celtic today. White sums up today's semi most emphatically, "Nobody remembers the team who is beaten in a semi-final. They are quickly brushed under the carpet".

White has no wish to see Dundee brushed under the carpet.

QUIZ . . .

DIXIE AND BOBBY — TWO OF A KIND

DIXIE DEANS

BOBBY LENNOX

IN the past few weeks, Dixie and Bobby have been hitting the headlines. In their sudden burst of form, they have both been on the goal trail.

Against Heart of Midlothian at Tynecastle they shared the two goals . . . against Falkirk at Parkhead, Dixie opened the scoring and Bobby added two more before Harry Hood added his own contribution to make it four and on Tuesday against Motherwell Deans got one of the two goals.

Though they haven't played in every game this season, Deans and Lennox have knocked in more than forty goals between them. In 46 appearances Dixie has scored 26, while Lennox, whose real surge of power has come in the last few weeks, has scored 18 goals for 26 games played.

Deans, who signed from Motherwell in 1971, is best remembered for his three exciting goals for Celtic in last season's Scottish Cup final at Hampden, but he's a newcomer at Parkhead compared with Lennox who joined Celtic from Ardeer Recreation in 1961 and has shared in all the major Parkhead triumphs over the past eight years.

Bobby's new lease of life has brought a new urgency to the Celtic front line, and with Deans always hungry for goals—their successful partnership is certainly not surprising.

Both will be playing their part today in the effort to take Celtic into their 37th Scottish Cup final.

DOUG HOUSTON

ALISTAIR HUNTER

DOUG & ALISTAIR CHASE THE MEDALS

DUNDEE'S Doug Houston, often referred to as the Strong Man in the Dens Park line up, and Alistair Hunter who has settled quickly into Celtic's fine defensive set up, both have the same ambition . . . A Cup winner's medal . . .

But unfortunately, only one can succeed.

For Doug, one of the prime reasons why Dundee are in today's semi-final, and the sole survivor of the team who played back in 1964, a winner's medal would be a wonderful souvenir.

He says, "The fact that we have recorded victories this season over Celtic in the League and League Cup have given our players a confidence they didn't have before—that Celtic really can be beaten."

But skipper Houston who signed for Dundee from Queen's Park eleven years ago, does not underestimate the task. He says, "It will not be easy, but I'm sure the boys can rise to the occasion."

Hunter, best known as a player who doesn't like to talk about himself, is just as keen as Doug to make this his big year. Alistair, who played his 14th game for Celtic against Motherwell on Tuesday night, since coming from Kilmarnock, has settled in well at Parkhead. He says, "It would be a wonderful thing to win a Scottish Cup medal in my first season. But first things first—we must beat Dundee. The way our team are playing I'm sure we can."

But for Doug the strong man and Alistair the quiet man there can be only ONE winner's medal!

ANSWERS TO QUIZ . . .

- 1 Willie Wallace (2).
- 2 1968. Dunfermline Athletic and Heart of Midlothian.
- 3 Season 1946-47.
- 4 Kilmarnock. Three nil for Celtic.
- 5 Bob Shankly, now with Stirling Albion.
