TODAY we can make a pleasing end to what I believe has been an encouraging season by claiming the point we require to guarantee second spot in the league and, through it, qualification for the UEFA Cup.

Nobody is more disappointed than me, the coaching staff and the players at having failed to deliver to you, the fans, a trophy this season.

However the situation is far from a depressing one.

We have produced quality football and our results in the second half of the season suggest that we CAN be successful next term.

To this end, in the close season I will be endeavouring to make improvements to the current playing staff.

Obviously a vital cog in a strong team set-up is having quality midfield players. No one-one realises more than myself then the importance of having Paul McStay with us in the forth coming seasons.

The club has done everything possible to persuade Paul to remain at the club and I sincerely hope that when the time comes for Paul to make his important decision he comes down on the side of preferring to stay at Celtic Park.

I would like to compliment all the players on giving myself and the coaching staff their full co-operation throughout the course of the season.

They have shown themselves to be a very professional, hard working bunch.

We are in our current favourable position of only requiring one point to book ourselves a place in Europe because of their magnificent efforts in having gone on a run of 16 league games without defeat and taking 29 out of a possible 32 points – statistics which really speak for themselves.

I would also like thank you our fans for your support and say how much I am looking forward to working on your behalf next season.

JUST a reminder about the Annual Edinburgh Programme Fair which will take place on Sunday May 10 at the Playhouse Theatre, Leith Walk in Edinburgh.

Everyone, from collectors and enthusiasts to those with even just a passing interest in the history and development of the football programme, will find something to attract them in the fair.

Admission is 40p for adults and 20p for children and the event will run from 11am through to 4pm a week tomorrow.

As well as a plethora of stalls and exhibits, a licenced bar will be open for those wishing refreshments or snacks.

WE have featured some young 'uns and we have featured some young 'uns this season, but today's tiny tot, who brings the curtain down on this feature, is perhaps the youngest of them all. For in the photograph on the left, Joseph Patrick Gallagher, from Preston in Lancashire is a mere 10 MINUTES old.

According to dad, James Gallagher, who is proudly holding his bundle of joy, the absence of club colours on new arrival Joseph is due to the fact that, when born on March 4 of this year, he weighed in at an amazing 10lbs 5oz and therefore a small enough Celtic jersey could not be found to fit him!

In view of Joseph's hefty size though perhaps dad James meant to say he could not find a strip BIG enough!

On May 25 of this month, exactly 25 years will have passed since the club's greatest ever triumph — the winning of the European Champions' Cup in Lisbon. However since Celtic's season winds up this afternoon, this afternoon's programme is the nearest to that great anniversary and so we have made it something of a commemorative issue.

Page 28 of today's programme is given over to a special Jim Scullion painting of the Lisbon Lions, commissioned by the Lochgelly Celtic Supporters' Club.

The club will be raffling the painting — which will be signed by the whole of the European Champions' Cup winning team — at a Lisbon Lions testimonial dance they are holding on October 9.

Proceeds will go to the Lisbon Lions' Testimonial Fund and should anyone wish to purchase a raffle ticket to have a chance to win the painting they should phone Mark Cameron on 0592 751607.

The Coatbridge artist also supplied the attractive painting featured on the front of this afternoon's matchday magazine, his work featuring just a few of the players who have shone for the club this season.

We would like to thank Jim for all his efforts in the past nine months and his popular cover paintings have undoubtedly helped make the Celtic Programmes in which they have featured highly unique and collectable.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

IN the unlikely event of an emergency evacuation of the stadium your full co-operation is required. Please comply with the INSTRUCTIONS and GUIDANCE given by police and stewards. Leave the stadium by the exit gates and under no circumstances re-enter thereafter.
