SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

A WARM welcome to Celtic Park for today's SPL game with Aberdeen. We've barely had enough time to draw breath after Wednesday night's match before we're back in action but this is a game we're looking forward to and one that we will be going all-out to win.

The victory over Rangers was an important one for us as we bid to retain our league title and though we left it late to get the winner, it was a victory that we thoroughly deserved.

The players gave everything from first minute to last and they got the rewards that their hard work, determination and skill merited.

Goals make all the difference in games. We saw that in our win at Fir Park last weekend and we saw it again in the 2-1 victory over Rangers. There was a good drive about the players in the midweek win and we want to keep that going today.

However, no-one needs reminding that our opponents this afternoon will provide the toughest of tests. Jimmy Calderwood's side won here at Celtic Park recently and regardless of their subsequent results, that victory will give them the confidence and belief that they can come here and get something out of the match.

But the players here have shown their character in recent weeks to keep going and we intend to maintain that until the end of the season and see then where that has taken us.

A derby game obviously has a unique atmosphere, probably enhanced by the fact that it was an evening kick-off, but it's just as important for there to be a good atmosphere today and your support is vital in this regard.

We have five league games remaining and our target remains a simple one - to win all five of these fixtures, starting with this afternoon's match against Aberdeen.
