SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

WE WANT TO ENSURE A CELEBRATORY ATMOSPHERE AT CELTIC PARK TODAY

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for our SPL match with Inverness Caley Thistle. I'm writing these notes ahead of the weekend matches, so I don't know the outcome of Motherwell's match on Friday night at Tannadice.

So either we will need to get at least a point from today's game or we will actually kick off the game already confirmed as champions.

Regardless of which scenario is correct, we will, as always, be going all-out to win the game and ensure a celebratory atmosphere at Celtic Park.

The players have worked extremely hard this season and it has been a momentous campaign for us. Last weekend we booked our place in the Scottish Cup final with a thrilling 4-3 victory over Dundee United, and that's something we can look forward to next month.

There was obvious disappointment in our League Cup exit, but, of course, there were many highlights of a magnificent European campaign that saw us defeat Barcelona here, win away in Moscow and reach the last 16 of the UEFA Champions League. Those are triumphs no-one will ever forget.

Our number one priority at the start of every season, however, is the league title, and we are on the verge of achieving that for a second consecutive season. That is a magnificent achievement and the players deserve tremendous praise for their efforts throughout this campaign.

Today we face an Inverness Caley Thistle side who have already enjoyed a victory here this season, back in November, so we know it's going to be a tough game this afternoon.

Terry Butcher and his players deserve congratulations for their own efforts this season. Having booked a top-six finish for the first time in the club's history, they're now looking to secure European football for next season.

That would represent tremendous success for Inverness, and while we will be doing everything we can this afternoon to win all three points, we wish them well for the rest of this season.

Thanks also go to all of you for your support throughout the campaign. It has been an important factor in our success and we are determined to do everything we can to deliver a domestic double this season. Enjoy the game.
