SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

STRACHAN

Our task today and for our remaining league fixtures is a straightforward one - we have to win. Three points is our target today against Motherwell and for our seven other league games between now and the end of the season. That is always the case at Celtic. No matter what tournament we are competing in and regardless of the opposition, we are expected to do everything to win the game.

These demands are what drive us on, the players, the coaching staff and the management, and it has brought us success in the past two seasons. We know that it is a difficult challenge we face, first of all to win all eight of our league fixtures but also, in the process, hope that results elsewhere will go our way in order for us to achieve what we set out to do at the beginning of the season - win the league title.

It's going to be hard for us to win the league but it's possible. We need to win every game now and it's possible that we can do that.

I definitely have the players here who are capable of winning those eight games. When we're on form, our strikers have scored enough goals and we need to make sure that we keep clean sheets.

With the system of the SPL split, we'll be facing the best teams in the league and that's the same the other way with our title rivals. We're just working on the assumption that we need to win every game and we'll take it from there.

The first of those eight games is upon us today and it is the first of three meetings we will have with Motherwell. Next week, we travel through to play at Fir Park while there is also one, post-split game.

Given Motherwell's position in the league and their form this season, we know that all of these games will be tough for us. Mark McGhee's side are coming to play us on the back on an important victory over Hibernian last weekend while we are determined to get back to winning ways.

You can be assured that we will be giving everything to win today and in all of our remaining league fixtures this season and, as I've mentioned many times before, your support and backing of the team is an important ingredient in any success we've achieved in the past and in any success we might achieve in the future.
