SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

BEST OF LUCK TO FORMER CELT JACKIE - BUT NOT TODAY!

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's SPL match with Dundee United. It's a return to domestic action after our midweek Champions League tie with Juventus, and we're hoping to bounce back with a victory.

Naturally, we're all very disappointed at the result. I don't think anyone who watched the game could argue that the final scoreline was a fair reflection of the match itself. Certainly, we created plenty of chances and dominated the game for large parts of it.

However, Juventus have some top-class players in their side, and they punished us by taking three of the chances they created.

It has left us with the toughest of tasks for the return leg in Turin, but having played so well against Juventus on Tuesday night, we will go into that game determined to be just as competitive and make it difficult for our opponents.

We played Dundee United here just a few weeks ago, and we enjoyed a good victory that day. Much has changed with our opponents since then, of course, with Jackie McNamara taking over as United manager.

Both he and Simon Donnelly did a great job at Partick Thistle, and they've got off to an impressive start in their new roles, knocking Rangers out of the Scottish Cup and then beating Hearts in the SPL last weekend.

Dundee United are always difficult opponents, but coming here under new management and in the midst of some good form, will make it even tougher for us, and we'll have to be at our best to win the game. Jackie is a former team-mate of mine, and I'm sure he'll get a great reception from the Celtic fans today. We all wish him every success in his new job, apart from this afternoon, of course!

Once again, I'd like to thank you all for your support. The atmosphere you created on Tuesday night and the backing you gave the team was incredible, and it's something we all appreciate.

We'll need that support again this afternoon as we look to maintain our impressive lead at the top of the league table. Enjoy the game.
