SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

WE'RE RECHARGED AND READY TO GO AFTER MINI SPL BREAK

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's SPL match with Hearts. It's good to be back in action after the winter break, and everyone is looking forward to the game today.

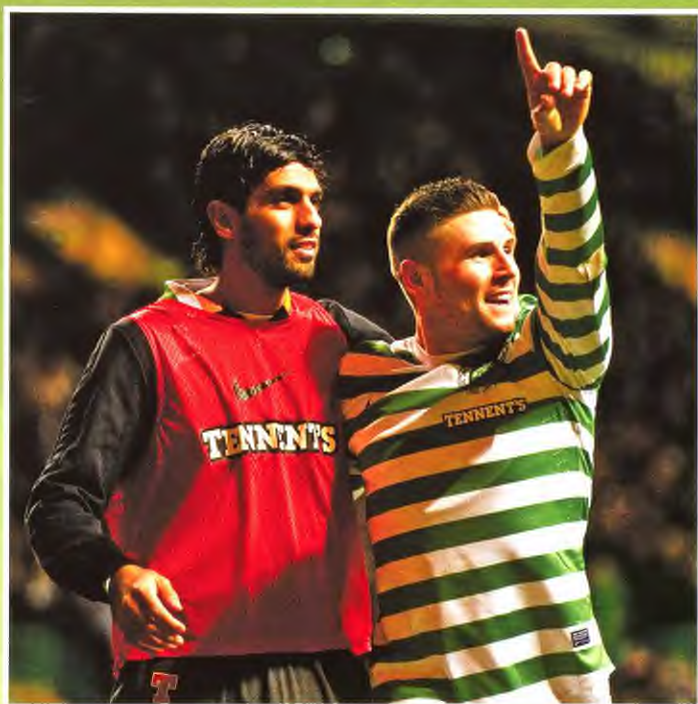

The short break that we have had has been a welcome one, however, and it has given us a chance to rest and recharge the batteries.

The first half of the season was a hectic one for us, with games in four different competitions, and the heavy schedule of fixtures was certainly a demanding one for the squad. The fact we're still in all four competitions is an indication of how well we coped with those demands, and we're looking forward to doing as well as we possibly can in all of them.

The players were able to get a few days' holiday following our hard-fought but well-deserved victory over Motherwell here at the start of the year, and then we met up for a training camp. The change of scenery, not only in terms of the facilities, but also with the weather, was beneficial to everyone, and while it gave the players a chance to relax, we were also able to put a lot of hard work in on the training ground which we hope will be beneficial in the months ahead.

We return to action today and we couldn't have asked for tougher opponents than Hearts. Games against Hearts are always very competitive and this afternoon's game will be no different.

In our recent meetings, particularly here at Celtic Park, they have been very tight encounters, and I'm sure John McGlynn will have his team organised and determined to try and get something out of today's game.

I would also like to congratulate Gordon Strachan on his appointment as Scotland manager and wish him every success in the post. Gordon brought tremendous success to this football club and I hope he will be a success for the Scotland national team.

He is a great coach and I was lucky enough to play under him here before working alongside him, and he has always been a great help to me since I've gone into management.

Today we will be looking for three points as we return to competitive football and, as always, we'll need your support.

It's an exciting time for the club, with the team competing in four competitions and we will be doing everything we can to ensure that we have a successful season. Enjoy the game.
