SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

WE WILL ALL MISS SEAN FALLON - A GREAT MAN AND CELTIC LEGEND

GOOD evening and welcome to Celtic Park for our game against Dundee United. It's a match that we've waited a long time to play, given that it was originally scheduled for August last year, but it's a fixture we're looking forward to.

The demands of the programme schedule mean that I've had to write these notes ahead of the weekend game against Hearts, but it goes without saying that I hope we're going into tonight's match on the back of a victory.

We went into the winter break with a nine-point lead at the top of the table and that's something we want to maintain and hopefully extend. The break came at a good time for us and allowed the players some time off to rest before we resumed the hard work with a training camp in Spain. Hopefully, we'll see the benefits of that during the rest of this campaign.

We're looking forward to the game tonight, knowing that matches against Dundee United are generally hard-fought and very entertaining. Certainly, our game at Tannadice earlier in the season was exciting and unpredictable, although we were disappointed to have conceded two late goals to draw the game.

Memories of that match will serve as a reminder of how difficult Peter Houston's team can be and we will have to be at our best tonight to win the game.

It's also been a sad time for everyone connected with Celtic with the news that Sean Fallon has passed away.

Sean was a great Celtic man, and it's been a privilege to meet him over the years. He was always a very humble man when you met him, even though his achievements in the game were extraordinary.

He did everything you could ever wish to achieve in football, as a player for both club and country, while he went to even greater things in management alongside Jock Stein. For these things, the Celtic supporters have always loved Sean and recognised him as one of our own because it was always his great love of Celtic which shone through.

It was a fitting tribute that Sean unveiled the championship flag back in August and the welcome he received from the supporters spoke volumes. We will all miss him.
