SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

WE ARE DETERMINED AND HAVE MUCH TO LOOK FORWARD TO

GOOD evening and welcome to Celtic Park for our SPL game with Kilmarnock. It's a match that we're determined to win and after the disappointment of the weekend, the players will want to bounce back and return to winning ways as soon as possible.

The games are coming thick and fast, and we've not had too much time to dwell on the cup defeat at Hampden. Everyone knows that it wasn't good enough and it's important that we learn from it and make sure it doesn't happen again.

Our form this season has been very good across several competitions and against a whole variety of opposition, which made it all the more disappointing that we did not perform to the level that I know we can.

However, we must now concentrate on what lies ahead for us, and we have a number of big challenges on the horizon.

Tonight is the first of those with the visit of Kilmarnock to Celtic Park. We have established a good lead at the top of the SPL, and having won our last two home games against Hearts and Dundee United, we'll be looking for another three points tonight.

But we also know that Kilmarnock will make it very difficult for us. They won on their last visit here, and Kenny Shiels will have his side just as well-organised and determined for this game as they were for the previous fixture here.

So it's important that we start the game well and do everything we can to take all three points tonight.

I would like to thank you again for the support you've given the team this season. I know that every Celtic fan will have been disappointed at the weekend's result, and that's a disappointment which is shared by everyone in the squad.

Our focus now is on the three competitions we remain in, and we'll be doing everything we can to ensure that our good work in the first half of the season delivers tangible rewards come the end of the season. Enjoy the game.
