SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR PART IN A MEMORABLE SEASON - ENJOY TODAY!

GOOD afternoon and welcome to a very special day at Celtic Park. It's our last home game of this season and also the day when we're presented with the Scottish Premier League trophy.

Winning the championship is always our top priority at the start of every season, and we've worked very hard to achieve that for the past two seasons. We were determined to do everything we could to retain the SPL trophy, and the players deserve tremendous credit for their hard work throughout the campaign to do just that.

It's a day that we've all been looking forward to since we sealed the title a few weeks ago, and I know that the players will enjoy the celebrations.

Of course, that will only be after the end of today's match, and we want to ensure that we can enjoy a victory as well. Our home record this season has been exceptional and we aim to sign off with another win.

St Johnstone will have other ideas, and after an impressive season for Steve Lomas' side, which has included some very good results against ourselves, they're still in the hunt for a European place. We'll be focused on winning today's match, and I'm sure it will be a very competitive and entertaining contest.

As well as congratulating the players for their achievements, both domestically and in Europe this season, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all of my backroom staff for their hard work and support.

Everyone has played their part in our success, and this is a day for all of us to enjoy.

And your support has, as always, been an integral part of our success. It's something that we all appreciate, and I'd like to thank you for the way you've backed the team throughout the season.

In return, I hope you've all enjoyed some great memories along the way, in the SPL and the Champions League, and as well as today's occasion, we're determined to sign off the season on May 26 with a Scottish Cup victory.

I hope you all enjoy today's game and the post-match celebrations. It is great to be the Champions again.
