SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims. The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

FOCUS IS FULLY ON THREE POINTS TODAY AFTER MAGNIFICENT TRIUMPH

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's match with St Johnstone. We return to league business and our focus will be on getting three points to maintain our position at the top of the SPL table.

I'm sure you're all still on a high after Wednesday night, and who can blame you? Our victory over Barcelona was one of the greatest ever results in the history of Celtic, and it was a result that the whole of football has been talking about.

The players deserve enormous credit for the achievement, and I am so proud of their efforts, as I know you are.

We were playing the best club side in the world, and also had to contend with a number of injuries that really stretched our squad to the limit. But every player who pulled on a Celtic jersey gave everything for the cause and they got the rewards they deserved.

Barcelona are full of world-class players, and to put our victory into perspective - they brought on three World Cup winners in Fabregas, Pique and Villa from the bench.

But it was our own super-sub, Tony Watt, who made the headlines. A year ago, he was scoring against Barcelona in the NextGen Series. Now, he's scored against their first-team.

Tony is at the beginning of his football career and he knows a lot of hard work lies ahead of him, but he's had a terrific start here and that's a credit to him and everyone behind the scenes at the club who has worked with him.

But, as I said, every player was a hero on Wednesday night. Our goalkeeper was just as brilliant at Celtic Park as he had been in the Nou Camp. Our defence was strong and resolute, our midfield worked tirelessly on and off the ball and our forwards tried to stretch their defence at every opportunity.

And what can I say about our supporters. The pre-match display which covered the whole stadium was something to behold and it set the scene for an incredible night. The noise was deafening and it reinforced to the football world that Celtic Park is a special venue.

Having enjoyed such a magnificent triumph, we've focused these past couple of days on today's match. St Johnstone will, as always, be tough opponents, and I'm sure they'll be determined to try and make amends for the recent League Cup defeat here.

We're equally determined to get all three points today and the players will be giving everything to do just that. Thanks, as ever, for your support. Enjoy the game.
