SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

MANAGER

GORDON STRACHAN

"WE ALL WANT SUCCESS AT THIS FOOTBALL CLUB. IT'S WHAT WE WORK AT EVERY SINGLE DAY AND IT'S WHAT WE ARE STRIVING TO DO HERE."

IT'S been a difficult few days for everyone connected with the club and there's no denying the fact that it was a major disappointment to lose against Aalborg on Tuesday night.

It was a game where we had to win to maintain our participation in European football and for most of the match we were the better side. Going a goal up through Barry Robson's header was no more than our play had merited up to that point and I felt that one goal would be good enough as Aalborg had no real chances and Artur had hardly a save to make.

Yet, our inability to keep clean sheets away from home has been our downfall.

I felt we did enough to win and it's hard to criticise the players after they produced a performance like that, because I thought it was among our better away European displays.

We were in control, we created chances but we never took them and ultimately, that contributed to our downfall.

The result, and the consequences of it, have left all of us hurting - coaches, players and supporters.

We all want success at this football club. It's what we work at every single day and it's what we are striving to do here.

That continues to be the case and, as in previous seasons, our number one priority remains the league championship.

Our success in winning the title these past three years has enabled us to compete in the UEFA Champions League and our aim is to win the title again to make sure we're back in that competition again next season.

The players have coped tremendously well with an unprecedented amount of injuries to our squad, as well as the extra demands of our European fixtures and the pressure that comes with being Champions, when we know every one of our opponents are determined to try and beat us.

That will be the case again this afternoon with the visit of Inverness Caley Thistle to Celtic Park.

Craig Brewster's side have been difficult opponents in the past and I've no doubt they will be again today.

We have a tremendous record in domestic games immediately after European matches, something that we've worked hard to achieve and of which we're extremely proud.

So the players will be giving everything to get all three points today and, with your backing, let's hope that will be the case.
