SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

WE HAVE A TITLE TO WIN AND AN UNBEATEN RECORD TO PRESERVE - THAT'S OUR FOCUS

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's Premiership game against St Johnstone. It's the fourth home game in a row, and it's another important fixture for us in this campaign.

While our league form has been superb, and we're rightly proud of the fact that we're still unbeaten in the Premiership this season, there's no getting away from the fact that we suffered a major blow last week with our defeat to Aberdeen in the Scottish Cup.

The aim here every season is to try and win every competition we enter and the fact that we won't be able to achieve that in the two domestic cup tournaments is a real disappointment to everyone

- management, players and supporters.

That feeling will remain with us, but we have look forward and maintain our determination to deliver the league trophy here for a third consecutive season.

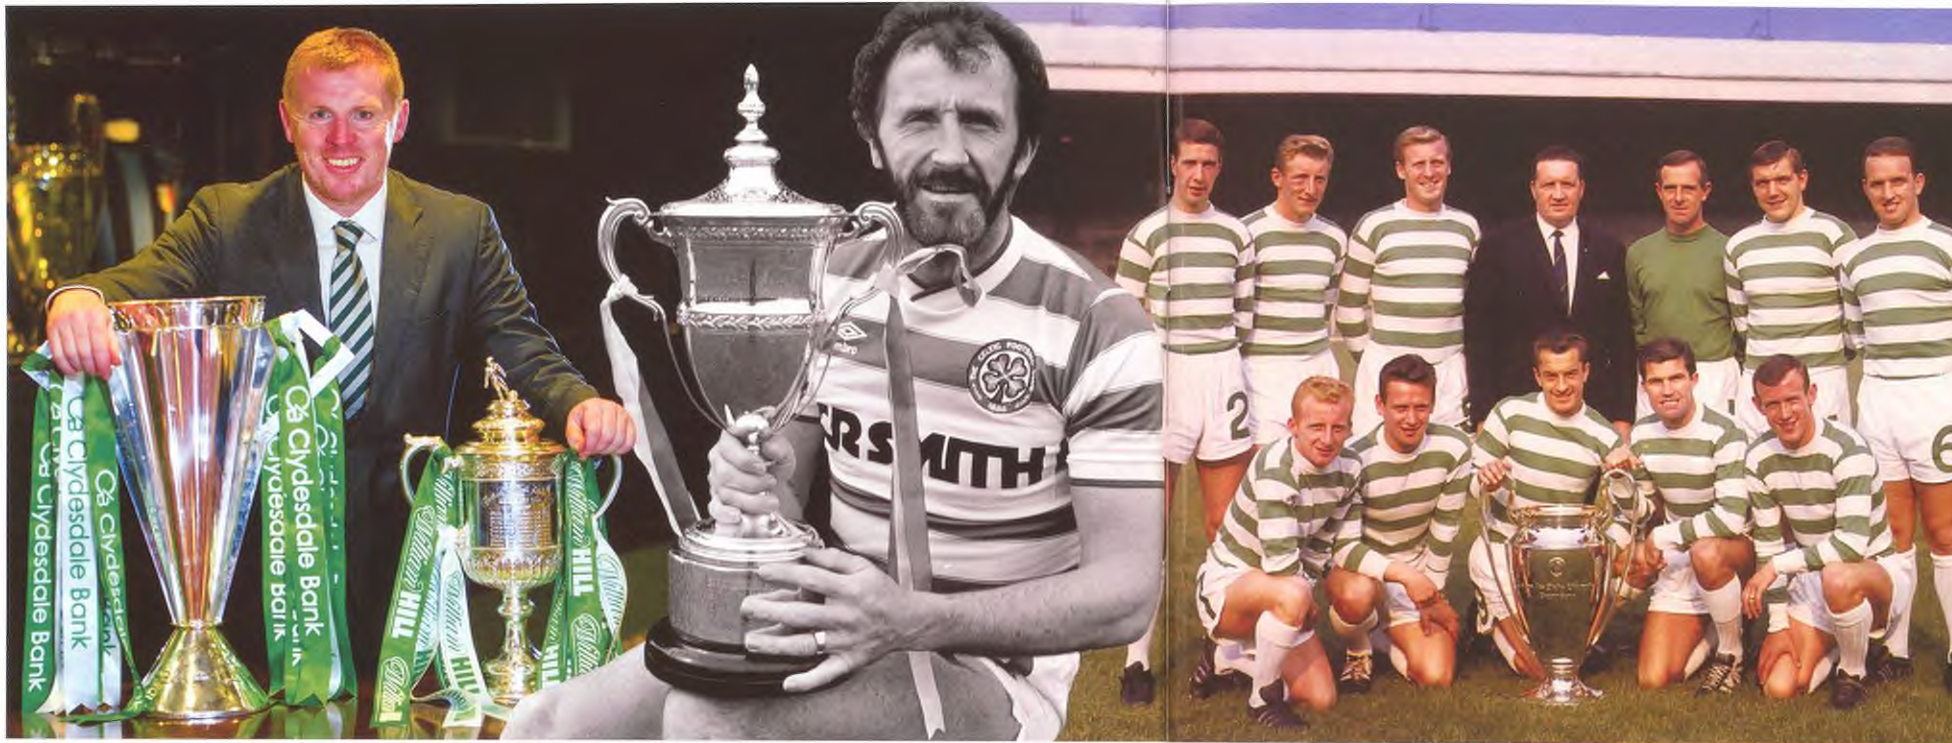

We have to be relentless in that pursuit and, up to now, that has been the case. To remain unbeaten after 24 league games shows an impressive level of consistency, and we have to get last weekend's match out of our system as quickly as possible and return to winning ways.

Of course, St Johnstone will have something to say about that, and on the evidence of our two previous meetings this season, it's going to be another tough contest this afternoon.

We won both of those games, but only by a one-goal margin, and Tommy Wright has an organised and competitive unit who will come here today determined to try and get something from the game.

It's up to us, however, to ensure that doesn't happen and the players will be determined to get all three points.

We have a title to win and an unbeaten record to preserve and that's our sole focus now for the rest of the season. Enjoy the game.
