SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

SCOTLAND'S TOP TWO SIDES MEET TODAY IN WHAT SHOULD BE AN EXCITING ENCOUNTER

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's Scottish Cup tie against Aberdeen. It's a game that I'm sure everyone is looking forward to, and it's certainly one that we're determined to win.

We are obviously going into this match full of confidence on the back of an excellent league record this season. To have remained unbeaten after 24 matches shows a remarkable level of consistency from the players, while to win 13 games in a row and keep 11 clean sheets in the league is testament to our quality throughout the team.

However, we're playing a team who are also enjoying a fine season. Derek McInnes has done a great job since taking over at Aberdeen, with the team currently second in the league table. And congratulations go to Aberdeen on reaching the League Cup final which, like the Scottish Cup final, will be held here at Celtic Park.

That, of course, is just one more incentive for us to progress to the next round. We are also the Scottish Cup holders and it's a trophy that we would clearly like to hold on to. There is also the demand that is always here at Celtic - to win every game.

We celebrated a little piece of Celtic history here last weekend, as Fraser Forster set a new club record with 11 consecutive league clean sheets.

He deserves a lot of credit, but it's also a record that has been achieved by the whole team, and everyone is proud of that.

And I'm sure Fraser would also be the first to thank our goalkeeping coach, Stevie Woods, for all the work that is put in every day up at Lennoxton.

Indeed, the last domestic goal we conceded was against today's opponents way back in November. We would clearly like to keep another clean sheet this afternoon, which would put us halfway towards reaching the next round of the Scottish Cup.

However, as Aberdeen showed against St Johnstone in their League Cup semi-final last weekend, they have a number of players capable of getting among the goals, so we will have to be at our very best this afternoon.

Your support is vital for us, as always, and I hope you all enjoy an exciting and entertaining cup tie.
