SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

LET'S RECREATE MOTHERWELL ATMOSPHERE FOR QUARTET OF HOME GAMES AHEAD

GOOD evening and welcome to Celtic Park for tonight's Premiership match against Kilmarnock. It's the first of four home games in a row and we'll obviously be aiming to win all of them.

That will require hard work and determination, along with the quality we possess within the squad. Sunday's game at Easter Road showed that we do have to fight for everything we achieve, and that will be the same again tonight.

Allan Johnston's side enjoyed an excellent victory over Inverness Caley Thistle at the weekend, so they will come here full of confidence. We also know from last season when we lost a game here against Kilmarnock, that they can and will be dangerous opponents tonight.

However, we are in the midst of an excellent run and the players are determined to keep that going. We've shown a remarkable level of consistency to remain unbeaten in the league so far this season, while to have won our last 11 fixtures is a tremendous credit to the players.

Our victory over Hibernian at the weekend showed the determination they have to keep their great run going, as well as wanting to preserve our clean sheet record. And nowhere is that more apparent than in the form of Fraser Forster, who produced a series of stunning saves at the weekend to deny Hibs a goal.

Tonight will be another challenge for us, but it's one that we're relishing. Our last home game here against Motherwell saw us produce an excellent performance and result, and I thoroughly enjoyed the day. The players were superb, while the atmosphere in the stadium was excellent.

We'll need that support again tonight and in the coming weeks and months as we look to retain the two trophies we won last season.

Enjoy the game.

In the event of a stadium evacuation please follow the directions of the Police and stewards
