SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

A WARM welcome to Celtic Park as we return to SPL duty this afternoon against Motherwell. The month of October started and finished with a home game but, in between we've had three tough away games.

Such is the nature of publication deadlines, however, that I've had to write these notes ahead of our game against Benfica so I'm not able to reflect on that match.

We couldn't have asked for a better start to the month than to beat the UEFA Champions League holders. There are not many sides in Europe who manage to do that - just have a look at AC Milan's record in the competition in the past few years for confirmation of that - so we were absolutely delighted to get the win here at Celtic Park.

Such is the nature of football that, having done so well against one of Europe's top teams, we found it difficult when we returned to domestic duty the following weekend.

Gretna proved to be very tough opponents and we left it very late to secure all three points. The victory, however, pointed to the character of the team and the determination of the players to keep going to the final whistle.

After a break for the international fixtures, we returned to league action last weekend against Rangers at Ibrox.

The defeat was a big disappointment to everyone connected with the club - the players, the management and, of course, the supporters.

It was a game of few chances and, unfortunately we did not take the ones that came our way.

However, we are still top of the league and our intention is to remain there.

That, of course, means that we have to win today's game against Motherwell, a match that concludes the first round of SPL fixtures.

Mark McGhee's side have enjoyed a good start to the season and their victory over Hibernian last weekend was the first time the Easter Road side have lost in the league this season.

So we know that we will have to be at our very best to secure all three points.

With your backing, we will be doing everything we can to achieve this.
