Tonight we welcome Glasgow Celtic to Oriel Park for this friendly match. It is great that the Veltic should play here and make the bond between our two sides even stronger. Due to the icy, wintery conditions in Scotland they have not had a match for some weeks and this game tonight should give them something to think about!

Before we met in the historic European Cup ties we played Celtic on Thursday, July 24th, 1975 and were defeated by 6-0 even though we had ace Middleboro' goalie Jim Platt in goal for us. In their panel for that game they had players that would grace any football pitch anywhere in the world such as Daghish, Lennox, Hood, Burns, McGrain, McCloskey and Elvadson. It is also very nice to be able to wish all who come to this game tonight a very happy New Year.

Celtic are a legend in football. Here in Ireland, all one has to do is to ask any youngster who his favourite club is and he'll reply Celtic. They are our standard bearers in Scotland and we are proud of them.

Two years ago when we met in the European Cup an experience was shared among those who were at the matches that will never be forgotten. For those of us who were lucky enough to be in Glasgow we saw a game that will never be matched. Who would have thought that we Dundalk, a group of part-timers, would have held the mighty Celtic to 1 goal and in the return two weeks later we bowed out of Europe with great pride and for once we were actually happy that the other team got through. No one could begrudge Celtic, a team which is dear to our hearts.

One of the Celtic All Time Greats

● Do you remember Jimmy Johnstone? He was one of the all time greats to ever wear the green and white of Celtic. His jinking and weaving, prodding and parrying, shooting and crossing caused many a problem to Celtic's opponents.

● He was one of the Lisbon Lions, way back in 1967 and only a few years ago he played in Oriel Park against Dundalk but it was not Celtic he was playing for but St. Patrick's Athletic. His memory and the memory of all the other Celtic greats still linger with us today.

● As we know Celtic have a knack of finding talent and one such find is the envy of all English managers that of Charlie Nicholas. Do you remember the Daily Mail Five-a-Side competition which was featured on television and the goal which won the final? It was a superb goal and we hope to see it repeated tonight.
