Club Notes

Welcome to Celtic

It is unfortunate that Celtic, who put us out of the Scottish Cup last week, are back again as League visitors this week. We have hardly had time to recover!

However, to-day we bid our friends from Parkhead welcome, assuring them that there are no hard feelings and promise them that we will do everything in our power to prevent the "double."

We must now concentrate on getting as many League points as possible and everything will be concentrated toward that end.
