CREST OF THE WAVE

At the moment we are in the happy position of riding the crest of the wave, delicately balanced on the topmost rung of the League Table. Like the present heat wave, there may be a sudden collapse, but this column always frowns on pessimism. Nothing succeeds like success!

One of the teams most eager to topple Raith from this lofty perch will be Celtic, returning in determined mood with hopes of avenging their League Cup defeat at Stark's Park.

The Parkhead men were narrowly beaten by Hearts on Saturday, after the bleak prospect of being down 3-0 at the interval. Their splendid second half revival proves that "the bhoys" have recovered much of their sparkle, with tricky Jim Conway in glittering form.

This meeting holds promise of a thrilling game. Ninety minutes is a long time, and the ladder will wobble and cause a few changes. Raith can still claim a grip on the top.

Believe it or not —

In 1920-21 Burnley played 30 successive League matches without defeat, unbeaten from September 6 to March 26!

RHYME TIME

Sometimes M.Ps. can get your goat, but now they mean to get your vote. They stand with highest hopes to sit where Parliament must do its bit. That little cross that marks a draw is strong enough to change the law! At Stark's Park hear me do my shouting, while elsewhere candidates are spouting; I'll stand behind the bottom goal, and cheer when Rovers top the poll!!

Should auld acquaintance be forgot? Last week he hit a scoring shot, and now the laddie re-appears as Celtic Billies sound the cheers! If sunshine goes and down rain pelts, 'twon't drown the thunder, "Up the Celts!" This makes encounters total three, and it is always Raith for me. Come one then, Raith, and make your play—there's "Conn" to show 'em all the "way"

THE WRAITH.
