CLUB NOTES

To-day we extend a very sincere welcome to Hibernian who under the able and astute Manager Jock Stein are staging a great comeback after a season or two in the doldrums. As Celtic Park was the scene of many of Jock's greatest victories he will no doubt be hoping that the Hibs will give him a victory but we are sure that our boys will just be as determined to annex the valuable points which are at stake, and if they fail it will not be for lack of effort.

One of the most pleasing features of our win at Cathkin was the fact that Billy McNeill showed that he was back to his best after his long absence through injury. Unfortunately Jim Kennedy received a nasty ankle injury which kept him out of the team on Wednesday evening and we hope he will be fit to-day because we certainly missed his drive and enthusiasm.

The defeat by Barcelona in the Fairs Cities Cup by the aggregate score of 3-1 was naturally a big disappointment to all. After the game in Spain it was evident that we were set a very big task to pull back two goals. This handicap proved too much for us. We had to go all out for goals and the Barcelona team were quite content to rely on defence in depth. These tactics proved successful for while we attacked consistently, the Spanish team became more and more confident as the game progressed and any hope of saving the tie disappeared when Steve Chalmers was injured and could not continue fifteen minutes from the end.

We congratulate the Barcelona club on their victory and wish them the best of luck in the tournament. They proved themselves a first-class team and were very well disciplined.

The death of Jimmy McMullan which we regret to announce recalls one of the very best Scottish teams because he was Captain of the team which has gone down in football history as the "Wembley Wizards."

We are pleased to announce that the Development Fund is going along nicely, and this week we have had plans prepared for a new enclosure on the Janefield side of the field. The three lucky Agents who won the trip to Barcelona greatly enjoyed the experience. There will be another draw for them at Christmas and we hope to award substantial cash prizes to the lucky winners.
