THIS is the fourth Old Firm meeting of the season, originally scheduled for March 30 but postponed because of weather conditions.

It is also our third last league match of the season with us still to face Dundee and Dumbarton at home after tonight's match.

The first Old Firm meeting this season was at Ibrox and ended in a 0-0 draw in August. Then at the turn of the year we met twice in the space of 11 days, firstly at Celtic Park when the match again ended all square, this time at 1-1, then at Ibrox on New Year's Day when we came from behind to win 2-1 through goals by Maurice Johnston and Brian McClair.

Previous results and league positions seldom have any bearing on the outcome of matches between Celtic and Rangers and these games often produce great contests that satisfy the spectator.

We will be without our regular goalkeeper, Pat Bonner, tonight. He is away in international duty with the Republic of Ireland. In his place we will have the experience of Peter Latchford who has been a Celtic player, and a very popular one, for over 10 years.

As well as remaining league matches, Celtic supporters have three Cup finals to look forward to. We have a side in the final of the Scottish Cup at all three professional levels. The first team will face Dundee United in the Scottish Cup final, the under 18 youth team will face Aberdeen in the BP Youth Cup final and the reserves will face either Hibs or Motherwell in the Scottish Second Eleven Cup Final.

GLASGOW RANGERS

ALMOST every fan has a different memory of each game and therefore different favourite games. It would be hard to say which were the best Old Firm meetings in the long history of the fixture. Every one of us could come up with a different suggestion.

Today, let's look at two meetings during the 1950's, one on the home ground of each club.

The first was played at Celtic Park on Saturday, September 23, 1950. This turned out to be a high scoring match with Rae and Thornton scoring for Rangers and Donald Weir, Peacock and McPhail (with a penalty) making it 3-2 for Celtic. The teams that afternoon were: CELTIC: Bonnar;

Fallon and Milne; Evans, Mallon and Baillie; Collins and D. Weir; McPhail; Peacock and Tully. RANGERS: Brown; Young and Lindsay; McColl, Woodburn and Cox; Rutherford and Finlay; Thornton; Johnston and Rae.

Seven years later Ibrox was the venue on September 21, 1957. The programme for the game gave the following teams: RANGERS: Ritchie; Shearer and Caldwell; McColl, Valentine and Millar; Scott and Simpson; Murray; Baird and Hubbard. CELTIC: Beattie; Donnelly and Fallon; Fernie, Evans and Peacock; Sharkey and Collins; McPhail; Wilson and Tully.

Again there were five goals in the game and Celtic scored three through Collins, McPhail and Wilson.

CELTIC ABROAD ...

THIS afternoon we feature a European Cup match which many of you will remember as it was played recently — on September 29, 1982.

It was the second leg of the European Cup first round for which Celtic travelled to the Olympic Stadium in Amsterdam to face Ajax who had Johann Cruyff in their ranks.

Having drawn 2-2 in the first leg at Celtic Park, Celtic had an uphill fight on their hands and thanks to magnificent goals by Charlie Nicholas and George McCluskey they won 2-1 to qualify for the next round.

The Celtic team in Amsterdam was: Bonner; McGrain and Reid; Aitken, McAdam and Sinclair; Provan and P. McStay; McGarvey; MacLeod and Nicholas. Substitutes: Moyes (McStay), Latchford, Sullivan, McCluskey (Provan), Crainie.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR ...

... Hibernian were our visitors to Celtic Park, and manager Davie Hay decided to bring some new faces into the side. Making their debuts were Peter Grant and Paul McGugan, and though the tall centre half only played for 45 minutes due to an injury, he showed great promise in that time. Indeed he set up the opening goal in the second minute when he headed a Tommy Burns cross towards goal to enable Brian McClair to score. In the 33rd minute Hibernian equalised with a cracking goal from Ralph Callachan.

Two minutes after the interval we went back into the lead and again it was thanks to Brian McClair who scored with a header from a John Colquhoun cross. This was Brian's 30th domestic goal of the season, a magnificent achievement in his first season with the Bhoys.

On the hour we increased our lead when Colquhoun beat three defenders to the ball and beat Alan Rough. Ten minutes from time Brian Rice scored for Hibs and the scored ended:

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

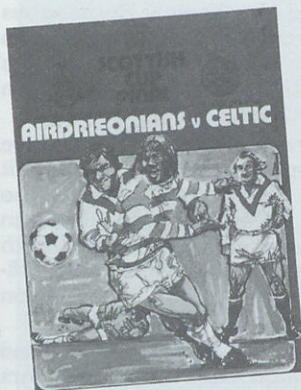

WEDNESDAY APRIL 30, 1980

A visit to Dens Park on League duty had been postponed from December and went ahead on April 30.

On a sunny night and with a stiff breeze blowing into their faces Celtic kicked off. The two best chances of the first half fell to Conroy and McGarvey and both were missed. Despite almost constant Celtic pressure the first half ended without them managing to turn their outfield supremacy into a goal advantage.

In the first couple of minutes of the second half Dundee came close to scoring twice. After these two near things the action was once again almost constantly in the direction of the Dundee goal but it took Celtic until the 63rd minute to break the deadlock.

In an aggressive run on the Dundee goal Mike Conroy passed to George McCluskey, took the return and hammered it into the net past 'keeper Donaldson. Celtic again made and failed to take several chances before the result was finally put beyond doubt in the 87th minute. George McCluskey hit a tremendous shot which 'keeper Donaldson could only parry and Dom Sullivan following up hit the ball into the empty net.

TEN YEARS AGO . . .

SATURDAY MAY 3, 1975

For Billy McNeill's last game for Celtic they travelled to Hampden to face Airdrieonians in the final of the Scottish Cup. Celtic came out of the match as winners with the team and scorers as follows: AIRDRIE 1, CELTIC 3 (Wilson 2, McCluskey). CELTIC: Latchford; McGrain and Lynch; Murray, McNeill and McCluskey; Hood and Glavin; Dalgligh; Lennox and Wilson; Subs: Callaghan and MacDonald.

Manager Jock Stein was very happy about the victory. He said: "I knew we would win — and win well, all things being equal. The players could not get on the park quick enough. For a side that has been recently criticised for lack of pace, they went tremendously fast for the ball.

"I was happy with the entire team and particularly Paul Wilson after the death of his mother in midweek. Paul's second goal virtually tied up the game."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

TUESDAY APRIL 28, 1970

Celtic, having finished all their games with the exception of the European Cup final, were starting their preparations with games against Highland League side Fraserburgh and Stenhousemuir.

In the meantime, the reserves completed a hectic end to the season run of four matches in a week to win the championship and the Reserve League Cup.

Having beaten Clyde 3-0 and Dundee 4-0 at Celtic Park to clinch the League they then faced Dunfermline at Parkhead in the first leg of the Reserve Cup final. Rank bad finishing by the second team saw the visitors hold them to a 2-2 draw. However in the second leg match at East End Park the youngsters played brilliantly to win the game 4-3 and the trophy 6-5 on aggregate.

IT'S A FACT

- THIS is the 196th league meeting between Celtic and Rangers. Of the previous 195 we have won 62, drawn 58 and lost 75, scoring 262 goals and conceding 286.
- SINCE the start of the Premier League we have played Rangers 39 times winning 18, drawing 12 and losing just 9, scoring 58 goals and conceding 44, winning 48 points.
- RANGERS have only won once at Celtic Park in the 19 Premier League matches played here in the last 10 years and that was in 1980.
- IN the last 17 Old Firm Premier League games played anywhere, Rangers have only managed to win twice with Celtic winning 11.
- THE title of leading scorer in Old Firm Premier League matches is held jointly by Tom McAdam and Derek Johnstone with eight goals. Not far behind are Frank McGarvey, Charlie Nicholas and Derek Parlane with six goals apiece and next, perhaps surprisingly, is Roy Aitken, a man not renowned for his goalscoring ability, with five goals.

RESERVE SCENE

with BOBBY LENNOX, MBE

LAST Thursday evening we were presented with the Premier Reserve League Championship trophy before our match against a Rangers second team.

Our side was: Latchford; Traynor and Reid; Shepherd, McGugan and Coyle; Colquhoun and Grant; McNally; McKechnie and Archdeacon. Lex Baillie and a trialist were our substitutes.

The Rangers side was a very experienced one including names like McCloy, McKinnon, McAdam, Russell, Redford, Williamson and MacDonald.

Like our whole season this game turned out to go all our way because of a great team performance. By the final whistle we had recorded a 5-0 scoreline.

Alan McNally opened the scoring in the first minute by converting a perfect pass from Owen Archdeacon. About 15 minutes from half-time Jim McKechnie made it 2-0 with a header.

Owen Archdeacon was again involved when Tony Shepherd scored the third and Archdeacon got on to the scoresheet himself with the fourth, a penalty, after the ball had been handled inside the box.

For the fifth, Jim McKechnie completed a personal double from the edge of the box.

A MESSAGE TO CASUALS ... FORGET IT!

A NEW BRAND of hooliganism is threatening Scottish football in the form of gangs calling themselves 'Casuals'.

It has come to our attention that some of these thugs are associating themselves with Celtic. Our message to them is simple — FORGET IT!

Celtic will back the police in every way to stamp out this cancer which can only do great damage to Scottish football.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE (SCOTLAND) ACT 1982

IN MY VIEW

by PETER LATCHFORD

I'M really looking forward to being involved in first team action again tonight and there is certainly no bigger match than a Celtic v Rangers encounter.

During my career I've played in many Old Firm matches including Cup Finals and important league clashes and I've been in the losing sides and winning sides in these matches and I can tell you that the atmosphere during these games is totally unique and a great one for players to play in.

This will be my second Old Firm match in six days and I hope that tonight's goes as well for Celtic as last Thursday's did. That was a Premier Reserve League tie which we won 5-0. For action and quality goals it compared well with any Old Firm game I've been involved in.

Our reserve side has been enjoying a great season. We've already won our league and we are in the final of our national cup competition. The standard among our young players is very high and when they come together as a team they are great to watch.

Celtic's future looks very bright with these lads and I believe many of them could hold their own in the Premier League.

Uppermost in my thoughts right now is tonight's match and I hope the cheer from the Celtic fans at the end of 90 minutes is every bit as loud as the one that will welcome us onto the field.
