SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

MANAGER'S NOTES

Let's sign off in style as title celebrations get underway

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park, the home of the Scottish Premier League champions. That feels good to say, and on the day when we are presented with the SPL trophy, it's great to be here to celebrate this tremendous triumph.

At the start of the season, our No.1 target is always the league championship, and we are all delighted to have achieved that.

It has been a long campaign, one that has been tough and challenging, but the character, determination and quality that the players have shown throughout the season has brought the rewards they deserve.

We have overturned a 15-point deficit, we won 17 league games in a row, we have had 24 clean sheets – a new SPL record – we have scored more goals than any other team and conceded fewer. In anyone's book, that makes us worthy champions and today is a day for all of us, players, management and supporters to enjoy.

Of course, we also want to sign off with a victory today. Three points would give us a points tally of 93 for the season, which would beat last season's total.

That would be a tremendous achievement and another sign of the impressive consistency this team has shown.

We know it won't be easy against a Hearts side who have given us some extremely tough games this season.

The most recent of those was the Scottish Cup semi-final, and that was a disappointing day for us. However, it wasn't to be and we congratulate Paulo Sergio and his team on reaching the final against their Edinburgh rivals, Hibernian.

I'm sure that they will want to go into that game on the back of a good result, so it's important for us to be at our best to win the match today.

On this, our final league match of the season, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for the support you have shown to me, my backroom staff and the team throughout the campaign.

This is a day for all of us to celebrate winning the league. The SPL trophy is back at Paradise and we will be doing everything we can next season to ensure that it stays here. Enjoy the game and thanks for all your support.
