SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

THE LIGHTEST TOUCH

WE MUST RETURN TO OUR WINNING WAYS AND MAINTAIN OUR UNBEATEN LEAGUE RUN

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's Premiership match against Hibernian. We're in the middle of a very busy December, with seven fixtures this month, and each one presents its own challenges.

While our recent domestic form has been very impressive, we go into today's game on the back of a very disappointing performance and result against Barcelona.

It was our final European fixture of this season, and while we travelled to the Nou Camp hoping to sign off the campaign on a positive note, we found ourselves well beaten on the night.

The disappointment of that game, and the manner of the defeat, is something that the players do feel. They've shown in the past that they have been able to compete against Barcelona, even allowing for the obvious talent within their ranks, so we know that we're better than what our performance indicated on Wednesday night.

On the back of a result like that, players just want to get back out on the pitch as soon as they can, and so today's game against Hibernian is one that everyone is looking forward to.

It doesn't lessen the pain of the midweek defeat, but it is important that we return to winning ways and also maintain our unbeaten start to the league campaign.

Hibernian, of course, will have other ideas, and come here under new management. Terry Butcher and Maurice Malpas did an excellent job at Inverness Caley Thistle and I'm absolutely sure that, in the fullness of time, they will do the same at Hibernian.

Their players will be determined to show their new manager that they can make a contribution to the team, and so Hibs will be difficult opponents today.

However, as I said before, our two previous domestic games against Hearts and Motherwell were very impressive and we will want a return to that form as quickly as possible, starting this afternoon. Enjoy the game.
