SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

WE AIM TO CONTINUE OUR SEQUENCE OF SUCCESSFUL RESULTS INTO THE NEW YEAR

I'D like to wish you all a very warm welcome to Celtic Park for the first game of 2014 and, of course, wish you all a very happy New Year.

I hope you all had a very happy Christmas and I'm delighted that we finished the calendar year on top, as we completed the first half of the season unbeaten in the league. That is no mean feat by the players considering how many games they have played in all competitions so far.

We have had to grind out some results along the way but I was specifically pleased with our domestic results over the past month as December threw up some pretty tricky ties in front of us with no fewer than six testing matches.

That we came through that with not only six wins but also six clean sheets pays testament to the players who have worked hard as a squad to achieve those wins and maintain their unbeaten run.

Since our last home game, the 2-0 win over Hearts, we have had two difficult away trips to both St Johnstone and Inverness Caley Thistle, and those two wins not only finished 2013 by increasing our unbeaten run but also gave us the impetus to carry on that sequence into 2014.

That won't be easy but although my New Year welcome also extends to our first-footers here today in the shape of Partick Thistle, who have made the short trip across the city, we know from experience that they will give us a real test this afternoon.

Alan Archibald has done a great job in readying his team for survival in the top tier and we had a tough time up at Firhill back in October when we recorded a 2-1 win over Thistle.

We're expecting another difficult task this afternoon but we are determined to keep this successful sequence going and we obviously want to start 2014 in the way we finished 2013 by recording another win.

Hopefully, we'll have as much success this year as we did in the last and you, the supporters, played your part in that success so, once more, I wish you all a very happy New Year and I hope it begins by you enjoying today's game.
