SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

IT'S AN EARLY START FOR US AS WE LOOK TO REPEAT LAST YEAR'S MAGIC

FIRST of all, I want to wish you all a warm welcome to Celtic Park for, not only the first home game of the season, but also our first home competitive game of the new term as well, which is an indication of just how early this campaign had started.

That warm welcome also goes out to the many Cliftonville supporters who are here tonight and I'm sure the Reds' fans will be given a great reception by the Celtic crowd tonight as we carry on the European tie we started at Solitude last Wednesday night.

Similarly, I'm sure that Tommy Breslin and his players will also receive a rousing reception tonight but the camaraderie will abate somewhat when the players take to the field as we worked very hard to earn our 3-0 first-leg win last week and we will be going all out to protect and, hopefully, increase that lead.

All round I'm delighted with the performance and the attitude of the team in last week's tie as we played well, scored three goals, created a lot of chances, and, in writing this before Saturday's meeting down south with Brentford, hopefully we have a clean bill of health for tonight's game.

I was really pleased about last week's result in light of all of the talk regarding our pre-season results in Germany, but we just wanted to try to get it right for the vital competitive games and even more importance was placed on that because we were starting in the UEFA Champions League.

So that 3-0 result gives us a bit of breathing space going into tonight's meeting but we still won't be taking anything for granted against a team who have nothing to lose and who will clearly relish playing at Celtic Park tonight.

However, we aim to be in the next round and our ultimate goal is to at least repeat the success we had on the European stage last season when we reached the last 16 after qualifying for the group stages.

Added, to that, we begin this campaign as the holders of both the SPL title and the Scottish Cup, and that is something we also want to protect and improve on but we can't do that without your help.

You backed the team magnificently last season and I'm sure you'll do so tonight and throughout the coming term - so, to the fans of both clubs this evening, enjoy tonight and enjoy your season.
