SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

WE'LL NEED TO BE AT OUR BEST AS TWO 100% LEAGUE RECORDS GO HEAD-TO-HEAD

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for today's Premiership match against Inverness Caley Thistle. As the only two sides in the division still with a 100 per cent record, it's sure to be a very competitive and, hopefully entertaining game.

We are in the middle of a very busy schedule of games and, of course, come into this afternoon's match on the back of a midweek European tie in Kazakhstan.

That was a disappointing night for us, but despite the two-goal deficit, we are determined to do everything we can this coming Wednesday to reverse that and ensure we're in the draw for the group stages of the UEFA Champions League.

That won't be easy but the players will be focused on that task when the game comes around, and with a packed Celtic Park behind us, we believe we can be successful.

Before then, we have a difficult game today against an Inverness Caley Thistle side who will be determined to make it four wins out of four in the league.

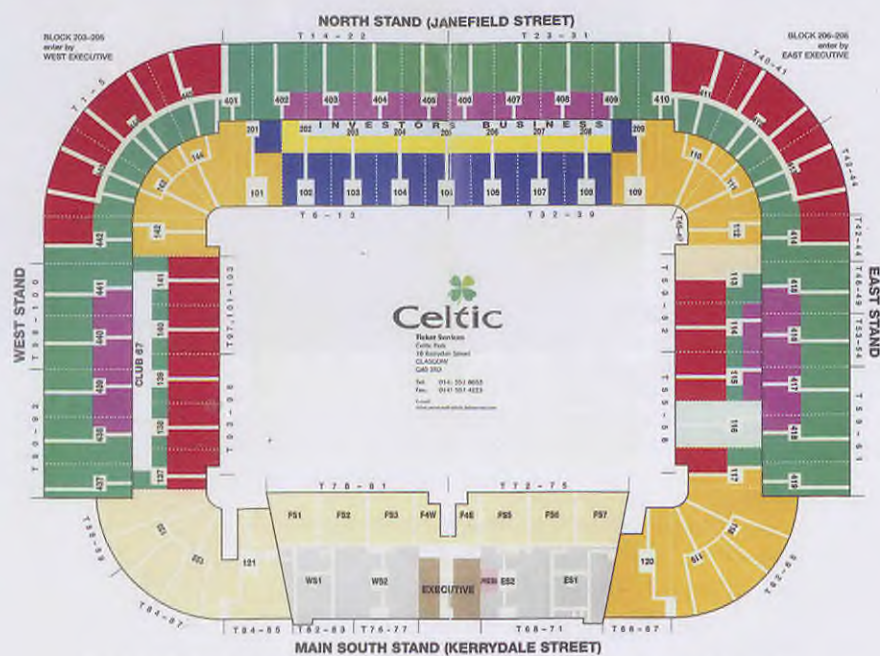

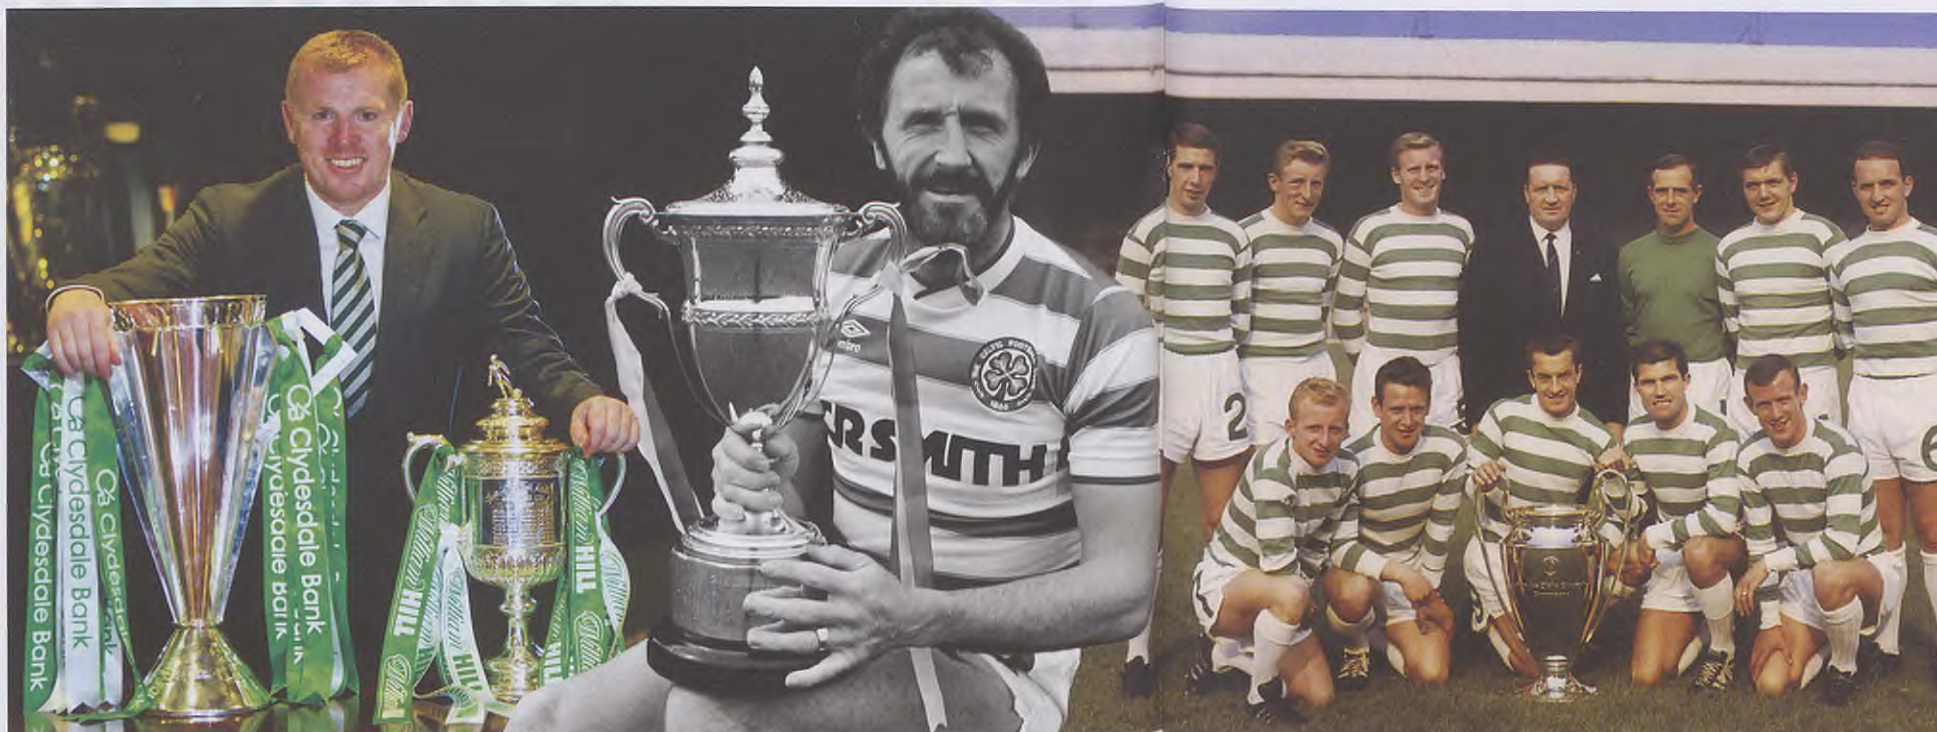

Terry Butcher's side have started the season impressively, really just carrying on from where they left off last season when I thought they were excellent and thoroughly deserved their top-six finish.

We know, from previous encounters against Inverness, including one game here when we lost 1-0, that this will be a very difficult match.

We know we'll have to be at our best to win today and after two wins in our opening two league games, we're focused on making it three-in-a-row.

Your support, as always, is vital, and that will be the case this afternoon and again on Wednesday night. Enjoy the game.

In the event of a stadium evacuation please follow the directions of the Police and stewards
