SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

Manager's Notes

NEIL LENNON

THE LEAGUE CUP IS A TROPHY THAT WE WANT TO BRING BACK TO CELTIC PARK

WE extend a warm welcome to Allan Moore, the players and staff of Morton as well as their supporters who have made the trip here to Celtic Park for tonight's game.

We could have been seeing a lot more of Morton this season as they pushed Partick Thistle all the way in the First Division championship chase last season and as Thistle certainly don't look out of place in the Premiership, we know we can expect a tough test from the Greenock side tonight.

Morton have already had a couple of high-scoring wins in the League Cup so far this season while this is our opening game in the tournament. We certainly don't want it to be our last as this is a trophy we would like to see return here to Celtic Park.

We celebrated the double last year with the league and Scottish Cup win but we also remember the disappointment of losing out at the semi-final stage to eventual winners, St Mirren and defeat is something we want to avoid at any stage of this competition.

It's a competition I've been successful in a couple of times as a player and it was the same with the corresponding trophy down south, but I've yet to experience that success as a manager and that's something I'd like to rectify.

This, however, is not a personal aim - we want this trophy for the players and the supporters as they deserve as much success as possible.

Losing out last season halted us from a winning the treble and, as always, we have the three domestic trophies in our sights. The road to any possible treble starts tonight and that aim won't be achieved unless we overcome Morton.

However, Morton will have their own ideas about the game and we have to be wary of their threat as they will be keen to prove that they are Premiership material and will see tonight's game as the ideal opportunity to do just that.

Notwithstanding that, we go into tonight's game on the back of a tough run of matches with ties against Hearts, AC Milan and St Johnstone still very fresh in the memory, and the visitors will be aware of that, but we must bring our will-to-win to the fore tonight and the supporters can help us do that.

Your support, as always, has been fantastic this season and you can help us deliver the success we want at this football club. Enjoy the game.
