GANGWAY FOR PARKHEAD GALLANTS!

WHEN Captain Evans and his crew of proved navigators "step ashore" at Stark's Park today, let the reverberation of the cheers of Raith and Celtic fans make Seafield Tower tremble! The contestants deserve it—"Celts" for their awe-inspiring records, Raith for their many fine achievements since promotion. No matter what malcontents may say or write, these two clubs have played relatively few poor games when they meet.

This season the League record of today's contestants bear near-similarity, and to make a forecast of today's result would be difficult. Here are the placings:—

	P.	Home			Away			Goals		Pts.
		W.	L.	D.	W.	L.	D.	F.	A.
CELTIC	19	1	4	5	9	0	0	40	22	25
RAITH ROVERS	21	6	3	1	4	3	4	42	26	25

The away record of Celtic is undefeated this season—a glorious performance, and one which they mean to hold. Can Raith halt this tenth away victory? We know the task is herculean, implying the best every Raith player can produce; this game is expected to provide one of the keenest and closest combats in many meetings. A Raith win at this stage would consolidate our good League position, and eleven men will enter the fray determined to acquire it.

RHYME TIME

BRAVE Dr. FUCHS has reached the Pole, indeed he is a hardy soul—for half-an-inch of snow for me is half-an-inch too much to see. It looks fine on a Christmas card, but when the pitch is frozen hard, some matches are unfairly lost and football fixtures are a "frost." Yet muffled tight to watch the game, let's roar for ROVERS just the same. They strive to serve a sparkling show—come rain and thunder, hail or snow!

A cheer for Celtic, Glasgow's pride, with reputation world-wide. There's COLLINS, ever on the go—a real DYNAMIC DYNAMO. And surely we have heard it said: "For super saving—BEATTIE'S 'bred'!" While EVANS, it is truly stated, in football craft is educated. But may we find that old V-sign in ROVERS' frisky forward line.

THE WRAITH.

WHO'LL BE SECOND?

The CELTIC bhoys away from home
Have a record with which I'm impressed,
But with Kelly to shoot, and McEwan to roam,
RAITH may not be easily suppressed.

HEARTS seem quite certain to collar the flag,
And RANGERS are trying to be next;
A home win today with two points in the bag
Might reveal an entirely new text.
