SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

TODAY IS A GREAT CHANCE TO TEST OURSELVES AGAINST A TOP SIDE

GOOD afternoon and welcome to Celtic Park for our friendly match with Borussia Mönchengladbach. And I would like to extend that welcome to our visitors from Germany.

The games are coming thick and fast and we're in the middle of four home games in a row. The first of those came last Wednesday when we completed the job against Cliftonville.

It was good to be back at Celtic Park and it was an enjoyable occasion. We played very well and there was a great atmosphere in the stadium.

That victory has set up a qualifying tie with Elfsborg, with the first leg this coming Wednesday and we know that's going to be tough.

We played Helsingborgs last season during our qualification campaign for the UEFA Champions League, and the advantage the Swedish teams have is that they're already midway through their domestic league campaign.

However, we showed great character and quality to see off Helsingborgs last year and we will need to do that again this time around against Elfsborg, starting with our home tie.

And I'm sure that a packed Celtic Park will help us as we aim to establish a first-leg lead.

That game will be quickly followed by the opening league game of the season against Ross County when we'll raise the league flag in recognition of our achievements last season.

In the midst of all these competitive games, of course, we have today's match against Borussia Mönchengladbach, and it is an important game in our preparations for the challenges ahead.

It allows us to test ourselves against a top Bundesliga side and also provides an opportunity to utilise the squad and give players some game-time.

Thanks as always for your support of the team and enjoy today's game.
