SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims. The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

WE'RE FOCUSED AND DETERMINED TO ACHIEVE MASSIVE PRIZE TONIGHT

GOOD evening and welcome to Celtic Park for our UEFA Champions League play-off tie against Shakhtar Karagandy. And a warm welcome to all our visitors from Kazakhstan for tonight's game.

It hardly needs repeating that this is a vital game for us. The prize at stake is a place in the group stages of the competition, and that is a huge incentive for us.

There's no doubt we were disappointed with the result from the first leg of the tie, but we know what we have to do tonight in order to be successful.

Likewise, Shakhtar Karagandy know what they need to do to achieve a positive result for them, so the stage is set for what I hope will be, for us, another memorable European occasion at Celtic Park.

Having reached the group stages last year, and then progressed on to the last 16, we're determined to try and match that success this time around.

That means tonight we will have to win by at least three clear goals to progress into the next stage of the competition.

We all know that won't be easy but the players are focused and determined, and they will give everything in order to try and achieve that.

We've had a busy schedule of games since July, and had another tough game at the weekend against Inverness Caley Thistle. The matches are coming thick and fast, and every member of the squad will be called upon to play their part.

Celtic Park on European nights is something special, and many great players down through the years have come here and acknowledged that fact.

That's due, in no small part, to the role our supporters play on these occasions. Your support and backing of the team is always vital, and tonight, as always, you can play your part in helping us achieve the result we need.

Thanks, as always, for your support. Enjoy the game.
