SOCIAL MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Celtic Football Club is legendary and as with most legends as much myth as fact surrounds its history and what the Club stands for today. The Social Mission Statement aims to simply define what the Club stands for and seeks to promote within society.

History

Celtic Football Club was founded in 1888. Its principal founder was a Marist Brother named Walfrid. The Club had two principal aims: The first aim was to raise funds to provide food for the poor of the East End of Glasgow, an area of the City that was greatly impoverished and had a high rate of infant mortality. Within the East End was a large Irish community and friction was growing between the native Glaswegians and the new influx of Irish. Brother Walfrid saw the need for social integration and his vision was a football club that Scottish and Irish, Protestants and Catholics alike could support. A new football club would be a vehicle to bring the communities together and this was the second aim. The Marist brother sought for the Club to have both a Scottish and Irish identity and hence, the Club's name "Celtic" came about, representing a bridge of cultures across the Irish Sea.

Current Positioning of Celtic Football Club

Celtic Football Club is a Scottish football club with proud Irish links. The primary business of Celtic is as a football club. It is run on a professional business basis with no political agenda. However, the Club has a wider role and the responsibility of being a major Scottish social institution promoting health, well-being and social integration.

Who is Celtic Football Club for?

Celtic Football Club is for people who want to support a football club that strives for excellence in Scotland and in Europe, is proud of its history, supportive of its local community and seeks to support the following aims: "To maximise all opportunities to disassociate the Club from sectarianism and bigotry of any kind. To promote Celtic as a Club for all people, regardless of gender, age, religion, race or ability."

Summary

Celtic is a club for everyone who believes in football as a medium for healthy pleasure, entertainment and social integration. The Club always has been and always will simply aim to be the team of the people.

OUR EURO DREAM IS FAR FROM OVER

THIS tie is not over as we know what we have to do tonight to maintain our ambition of European football this season and we will be going all out to deliver our aims.

We started quite well against Legia in Warsaw and got the first goal early on, but then we conceded an easy goal which we could have stopped and that was disappointing.

However, that away goal by Callum McGregor proves that we still have a chance tonight here at BT Murrayfield and if we give everything we have with the magnificent Celtic support behind us, then we will be doing all in our power to win the game and take us through.

I saw in the last game here the amazing support from the stands and the noise and fervour created by the support - that will be key to tonight's action on the pitch as we know that the Celtic support can spur the team on.

I know there was a similar scenario last year when the fans and the team worked together to come back and overpower Shakhter Karagandy so we will be endeavouring for the same outcome tonight in scoring those three goals.

Looking back at last week, we lost our heads after the first goal and started to lose the ball in the centre of the pitch so many times. We also didn't stay together as a back four. Legia got easy chances and we also had the red card so it was a totally different match in the second half.

We started the second half okay but again in many situations we weren't together as a team. When we were pressing, some were high and some were low instead of being together.

It was a very poor performance and worst of all was the commitment and energy - we needed much more energy in the game.

We didn't stay together for 90 minutes and that's what concerned me most. What's done is done, though, and we have to learn from this quickly.

'I know there was a similar scenario last year when the fans and the team worked together to come back so we will be endeavouring for the same outcome tonight'

So the players have to be together as a team on the park and I know that the supporters will urge the side on from even before the first whistle as this team goes far beyond the 11 men on the pitch.

Be loud and enjoy the game.
