THE BOSS'S SPOT

... by JIM McLEAN

Good afternoon and welcome back to Tannadice for what should prove to be another in the long line of pulsating Premier League clashes with our visitors from Parkhead.

Since last I communicated with you through this column our successive Premier League wins over Kilmarnock here and Aberdeen at Pittodrie have brightened the picture at that level.

After our 4-0 success over Killie two weeks ago I stated that although I was pleased that we were amongst the goals again, I would not be completely satisfied that we had turned the corner until consistency of performance became part and parcel of our outings.

The signing of Eamonn Bannon and his subsequent debut against League Cup quarter-final opponents Raith Rovers was somewhat dimmed by the fact that we failed once again to turn it on in front of our own fans.

However, those of you who travelled to Aberdeen last Saturday were doubtless as pleased as I was at both the performance and of course the eventual outcome.

For me to say that ours was a very, very good display is as you know a rare occurrence and yet despite the tremendous 3-0 win I must admit to a sense of intense anger.

By that I mean that ours was a display which should and could occur far more often than has been the case this season. In all I rate only three of our showings this season

'CITY PUBLIC

have come up to scratch.

And for you the fans to have missed out so often this term makes me very annoyed. The city public have been tremendous to the club this season in turning out in greater numbers than before, and I want you to benefit from the side playing at its full potential.

Why this has not happened consistently is unfortunate for you the fans, because believe you me our side at its very best as was the case at Pittodrie last week, is a pleasure to watch.

Their performance in that opening 30 minutes last week was probably the very best by any United side since I took over at the club.

Now I look for a continuation because surely the players themselves must realise that chances of winning anything for provincial clubs come only one in a blue moon. And when they come, such as our opportunity last season — those chances simply must be snapped up.

Today will be another hard one for us but I seek no more than a repeat of last weekend's display.

CELTIC F.C. — history at a glance

- 1888—Club formed.
1889—Their first Scottish Cup final when losing 2-1 to Third Lanark.
1892—The first major honour for the club when winning the Scottish Cup with a 5-1 victory after the first final ended 1-0 in Celtic's favour but had to be replayed.
1893—The first league championship.
1894—Champions again.
1895—Record victory when beating Dundee by 11-0 at Parkhead.
1896—Their third championship.
1898—Title number four.
1899—Cup-winners with 2-0 success over Rangers.
1900—Retained the trophy with a 4-3 advantage over Queen's Park.
1904—Rangers are cup final victims again in the third Old Firm final.
1905/1910—Five consecutive league titles with league and cup doubles being achieved in terms 1907/8 and 1908/9.
1912—Another cup final success.
1914/1919—Another five titles with the double grabbed again in season 1914.
1922—League champions, equalling their best ever points tally of 67.
1923—Cup-winners.
1925—League champions.
1926—The title again.
1927—Cup-winners.
1931— —and again.
1933— — — and again.
1936—League champions and Jimmy McGrory netted 50 goals, the best in a season by a Celt.
1937—Lost 8-0 to Motherwell, a club record setback, but still managed to win the cup with a final success over Aberdeen in front of a record Hampden crowd.
1938—Winners of the league title and also Empire Exhibition Cup. The Old Firm New Year game drew 92,000 to Parkhead, a record.
1951—Cup-winners.
1952—Beat Hibs to win the Coronation Cup.
1954—Champions again — and the double.
1956—First appearance in a League Cup final, drawing 0-0 with Thistle before going on to a 3-0 success in the replay.
1957—Retained the League Cup with 7-1 victory over rivals Rangers.
1965—Jock Stein took them to their first major honour under his command when beating Dunfermline 3-2 in the Scottish Cup final.
1966—League champions for only the second time since the war.
1967—What a season for the club. League champions, Scottish, League, Glasgow Cups all won but the prize of them all was the European Cup when beating Inter-Milan in Lisbon.
1970—Lost to Feyenoord in the European Cup final.
1974—League champions for the NINTH successive season, a record.
1977—Premier League champions.
1978—Failed to reach the final of the League Cup for the first time since 1963.
1979—Coming from behind, Celtic won the Premier League for the second time.

Club Snippets....

- The Dundee United board refer to the purported statement made by Laurie McMenemy in the "Sunday Post" of October 7, when he said, "I was interested in David Narey till I heard the price." This is a mis-statement and apt (whether intentional or not) to un-settle the player. At no time were Southampton quoted a price by this board.

Mr McMenemy has said in a letter to the club, "within hours of your telephone call I contacted a representative of the paper and asked for the matter to be put right." So far this has not been done.

- Our 4-0 win over Kilmarnock here a fortnight ago was our biggest winning margin for almost two years. In November 1977 we won by the same margin over Clydebank with our biggest Premier League victory to date still remaining at 5-0, over Ayr United in season 1975/76.
- George Fleming's double against Kilmarnock were the midfield man's first goals of the term and represented two-thirds of his total for the entire season last time. He netted singles against Rangers, Thistle and Aberdeen last season.
- With an expected gate this afternoon again in excess of 10,000 it should prove to be the seventh occasion so far this term that five-figure attendances have been achieved here at Tannadice. And with returns still to come from Celtic, Rangers, Aberdeen and Dundee, last season's total of only eight crowds larger than 10,000 is almost certain to be broken.
- The excellent 3-0 win at Pittodrie last week was marked by two "firsts." Iain Phillip and Eamonn Bannon both notched up their first goals for United. In Bannon's case, it came in his second game for the Club whilst it was Iain's 29th game.
- Jim Docherty, too, recorded his first goals for his new club. On Monday, October 29, the ex-East Stirling and Chelsea man netted twice in the Tayside Reserve League fixture at Forfar which United won 4-0. Three days later, Jim scored the only goal of the match for the Reserves against Aberdeen at Tannadice.
- Happy birthday today to Young Supporters' Club members Andrew Mullen (No. 129) who is 16, David Johnstone (No. 367), David Ramsay (No. 201) and Michael Ringsell (No. 179) who are 13 and little Susan Anderson (No. 54) who is just four years old.

● TODAY'S MASCOT . . .

Beginning with Celtic this afternoon, captain Paul Hegarty will be preceded on to the field by a young team mascot. A different youngster will be chosen for every 1st team game at Tannadice and first off today is 9-year-old Rusell Dear, a Primary 5 pupil at Glebelands School. Russell, whose favourite United player is Paul Hegarty, turns out for West Park Under-10s in the Sunday League.

Records played at Tannadice are supplied by CATHIE McCABE RECORD SHOPS

As it takes time to appreciate a pint of McEwan's Export Here's a few alibis for the wife.

1. Guess whose wife had a baby at lunchtime?
2. The trouble with my secretary is she sees me as a father figure.
3. Since they put the clocks forward, I keep losing track of time.
4. Either he stops offering me drinks or I fire him.
5. I've heard some long jokes but this one was ridiculous.
6. After fifteen years I should realise there's no such thing as a quick one.
7. When there are twenty-nine people in a round it's sometimes difficult to say goodbye.
8. When the Chairman pops into the pub it's not too diplomatic to leave.
9. Do we still have that guarantee on my Japanese watch?
10. If he could've stood up, I could have left him.
11. I'd never have got involved if I'd known they were playing a thousand and one.
12. You'd think a pub of that size would have more than one barman.

Should all else fail, take home some cans of McEwan's Export. It's the same brew that comes on draught. And your wife will never know the difference.

28th VISIT

The one plain fact about any Premier League meeting between the pair contesting today is that it's a fixture to ignore on the Treble Chance — as history proves.

Since 1975/76 the eight meetings between the clubs have resulted in clear-cut decisions, evenly shared out at four wins apiece. At Parkhead United have still to record a Premier success, with draws our best achievement there so far.

And it was there in 76/77 that Celtic sent five goals past our defence to record the only occasion that any Premier side has done so since reconstruction.

Remarkably, it was season 1961-62 before Celtic managed a win of any sort here at Tannadice. This they achieved in a remarkable 5-4 scoreline after a sensational game.

United reaped their revenge in the very next season, winning 3-0, the Tannadice side's biggest success over Celtic.

Then in Celtic's glory season of 1966/67 the Parkhead side lost only two league games — both to United who recorded their first ever win away in the series of games between the clubs.

Celtic have hammered in seven goals against the men from Tannadice on three occasions, in 1926/27 and 1969/70 when it was 7-2, and in 1929/30 when it was 7-0.

Their biggest winning margin here at Tannadice was a 5-0 win in 1967/68 and started off a five-game winning sequence for the Parkhead men. Remarkably, United's record at Parkhead was marginally better than at home during Celtic's record-breaking nine championship wins.
