APRIL, 1956, WAS VICTORY MONTH.— CAN ATHLETIC DO IT AGAIN?

There's a great similarity between Athletic's position in the league at this time last season and that which exists to-day. A hoodoo seems to hang over the club in Jan., Feb. and March, the reasons for which are not easy to analyse. Last season, April saw the turn of the tide, the team came up fighting in virtually the last round and won nine points from six games—a sterling performance which hit the relegation bogey for six. Can the boys do it again? Nine of them are out to-day who beat Rangers in that grand finish up at East End. George Peebles and George O'Brien are the missing names in to-day's line-up. This is one of the most vital games that any Athletic team have ever been confronted with. The issues at stake may well determine whether First League soccer will survive in the Auld Grey Toon next season. We are very conscious of the strain which a game of this kind must inevitably react on our players. We therefore make a plea for warm hearted support for our team, which, we know, will help so much at this crucial time.

CHARLIE DICKSON.

East End Notes.

WELCOME CELTIC.—We extend a warm welcome to our guests from Glasgow who are always popular visitors at East End. Both clubs have old associations—47 years ago they crossed swords at Parkhead in the Scottish Cup. The Green and Whites haven't struck it rich this season, but their reputation for playing skillful soccer remains untarnished.

HOPEFUL.—Athletic haven't lost to Celtic at East End for a couple of seasons. In 1956 the league game was drawn and this season the second 'leg' of the League Cup quarter-final was won 3-0 by the Athletic.

GOOD SHOW.—In their game against Leeds United on Monday the Athletic gave a fine display and fully merited the sharing of honours. The team which is on duty to-day faced the Yorkshire club. George O'Brien didn't turn out against his old team. We wish George every success in his new colours.

AT HALF-TIME 'The Butlin Young Ladies' will give a display of 'Rhapsody in Rhythm.' Also at the interval, the draw for the S.C. lottery sweepstake.

NEXT WEEK.—Queen's Park v. Athletic on Tuesday at Hampden, kick-off 6.45 p.m. Same evening at East End, Reserve game against Rangers, kick-off 7 p.m.
