THE GOOD NAME OF THE CLUB

THE Old Firm New Year fixture comes back to its traditional January 1 date today—and Rangers Football Club ask all fans to ensure that there is a trouble-free start to 1976.

The Club want none of the terracing problems which have plagued Old Firm matches in the past. The record at Ibrox is excellent, and has been for some considerable time. Rangers would like it to stay that way.

Rangers ask all their fans to do nothing which will jeopardise the safety of others, or the good name of the club.

Incidents are a dis-service to both Rangers and Scottish football.

And the standard of conduct should be maintained after the match as well. Rangers ask all their supporters to follow the 10-point Ibrox Code of Conduct printed below.

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Ban the carrying of alcohol on buses.
2. Ban members from taking alcohol into the stadium.
3. Ban the singing of provocative songs in buses and on the terracings.
4. Ban the use of obscene language.
5. Have the greatest respect for residents in the vicinity of football grounds. Do not be a public nuisance.
6. Put an end to members urinating at the roadside when travelling.
7. Set a good example to the youngsters who are travelling.
8. Impress on youth the importance of good behaviour.
9. Have respect for women who attend matches.
10. Notify Ibrox Stadium of any sign of hooliganism both home and away.

The Club, Police, Local Authorities and S.F.A. will back the supporters association in these measures.

Don't miss this top class show of Karate

RANGERS have come up with another novel form of pre-match and interval entertainment for the Ne'erday game with Old Firm rivals Celtic at Ibrox.

Before the match and during the half-time interval, fans will be entertained by a karate demonstration by members of the Budokan Karate Club.

Over 40 of the club's members will take part in the display. They will split into four groups of 10 and give simultaneous demonstrations on the corners of the two 18-yard boxes.

The Budokan members will range from all ages and experience, from black-belt internationalists to fairly new recruits to the Club.

The Budokan's founder and chief instructor, Alex McGregor, one of six internationalists who will be taking part, is looking forward to this novel demonstration.

"We have given displays before but never on a scale like this," said Alex. "We will be having a few rehearsals before the big day to make sure everyone knows the drill.

"I think it should be an enjoyable experience for spectators who have not seen much karate before. Before the game we will demonstrate some fight and self-defence techniques, and during the interval will break a few pieces of wood, tiles and bricks," said Alex.

The karate display will start around 1.25 p.m. on January 1. So come to the ground early and enjoy it.

NO WONDER IT'S THE GREATEST

CELTIC pay their second League visit of the season to Ibrox today, and of course are the traditional 'first footer' at Ibrox.

Celts, despite going through a transitional period, have managed to stay up at the top in the table. But like Rangers, Hibs and Motherwell have found that points are harder to come by in the new Premier set-up.

And, of course, they are still missing the full guidance of manager Jock Stein who is still making his recovery from a car accident in the summer.

However, assistant manager Sean Fallon—who featured in many a hard Old Firm clash himself in his days as a Celtic player—has kept the Parkhead side ticking along.

Celts have two 'outsiders' taking part in today's match—goalkeeper Peter Latchford who is English and Icelander Johannes Edvaldsson.

Both have already featured in Old Firm matches this season so they know what it's all about—even if they don't quite appreciate the special atmosphere at times.

Even the most experienced of players, like John Greig of Rangers and Bobby Lennox of Celtic, will admit that the years in no way diminish the extra feeling of nerves, strain and tension that comes with an Old Firm clash.

It's something no one gets used to, and this can help produce results which vary enormously and often don't reflect the run of play. The best team needn't necessarily win when the Old Firm meet.

This season Celtic are Scotland's representatives in the Cup Winners' Cup, and are safely through to the quarter-finals having beaten Icelandic team Valur and Portuguese side Boavista in the past few months.

Celtic will know next month who they are due to get in the quarter-finals in March, but no matter the opposition are confident of their chances over a home and away encounter.

Celtic have a powerful pool of players to draw on, despite the fact that household names such as Billy McNeill, George Connelly, Jim Brogan, Jimmy Johnstone and Steve Murray have vanished from the Parkhead scene.

Among those in the running for a place today are:

★Goalkeeper PETER LATCHFORD. 6ft, 13st. Amiable big English Under-23 internationalist who was on loan to Celtic from West Brom last season and finally signed for around £40,000 in the close season. Not stylish, but solid. Played in 14 games last season, including the Scottish and Glasgow Cup Finals. This term he has turned out in all games and has added another Cup Final to his experience—the League Cup in October when Rangers won 1-0.

★Full back DANNY McGRAIN. 5ft 9in, 10st 12lbs. Joined Celtic from Maryhill in 1967 and has developed into a World class player. Has won more than 15 full caps. Speedy, attack-minded player who loves to go on the overlap. Played for Scotland in this season's European Nations tournament, normally partnering Sandy Jardine.

★Full back ANDY LYNCH. 5ft 10in. 11st. Former Hearts winger who was signed for £30,000 in 1973 and subsequently stepped back to become a clever, stylish but strong defender.

★Defender PAT McCLUSKEY. 5ft 9in, 11st 3lbs. Stocky, powerful player who was signed from Maryhill in 1970 and can turn out either as sweeper or in midfield. Under-23 cap.

★Defender JOHANNES EDVALDSSON. 6ft, 13st. Talented Icelandic international skipper who can drive forward in midfield, or defend determinedly at the back. Has proved to be a great signing for Celtic. Settled well in Glasgow and has bought a flat recently.

★Defender RODDY McDONALD. 6ft 1in, 12st 6lbs. Highland laddie who came down from Brora a couple of years ago and was groomed as a successor to Billy McNeill. Has settled into the first team this season and played more than 30 matches. Scored a few goals as well—he's handy when he comes up for corners.

★Forward PAUL WILSON. 5ft 7in, 11st. Talented, long-striding player who can play on the wing or through the middle with equal success. Was the club's top marksman with 26 goals last season, but hasn't found goals coming as readily this term.

★Forward HARRY HOOD. 5ft 9in, 11st. Clever, ball playing forward with the skill to turn out in any attack position and in midfield. Cost £40,000 from Clyde in 1969 after having also had a spell in English football with Sunderland. Owns a hotel in Lanarkshire.

★Midfield man TOMMY CALLAGHAN. 6ft 1in, 11st 10lbs. Tall, long-striding player who drives down the left side normally. Cost £30,000 from Dunfermline in 1968 and has been a valuable player in the Parkhead pool. Has two League caps.

★Midfield man RONNIE GLAVIN. 5ft 9½in, 10st 11lbs. Celtic's most expensive signing at £80,000 from Partick Thistle last season, but so far has failed to find his Firhill form. Packs a powerful shot.

★Midfield man JACKY McNAMARA. 5ft 10in, 10st 10lbs. Former Cumbernauld junior who was signed in 1970 and has made steady progress through to the first team. Off because of injury recently but looks like being a player of the future for Celtic.

★Forward KENNY DALGLISH. 5ft 9in, 10st 10lbs. One of the great players in British football. Makes and takes goals—netted 22 last season and has more than a dozen this term. Brilliant, instinctive footballer who has become a permanent fixture in the Scottish team, having won more than 20 caps. Appointed skipper this year.

★Striker DIXIE DEANS. 5ft 8in, 11st. Stocky, strong striker who can rise above the biggest defenders to get goals. Prolific scorer as a junior with Neilston, went on to be the same with Motherwell and has kept the goals going since his £25,000 transfer in 1971.

★Forward BOBBY LENNOX. 5ft 6in, 10st 10lbs. Celtic's longest-serving player, having joined them from Ardeer Rec in 1961. Has scored plenty of goals in his career and has won every honour possible. The last of the Lisbon Lions—he was at outside left when Celts won the European Cup by beating Inter-Milan in Lisbon in 1967.

-But it's
very close

RANGERS clearly have the edge over their Old Firm rivals Celtic in the three meetings so far this season.

Rangers won the opening Premier League match at Ibrox, took the League Cup Final at Hampden and a few days later got a draw in the League encounter at Parkhead.

So it has all been going well for the Light Blues. But the three games have been close—just as today is likely to be the same.

The first game, on August 30, was watched by 69,000 fans at Ibrox. And they got value for money in absorbing match which produced three fine goals, an ordering off for Alex MacDonald of Rangers and bookings for Andy Lynch of Celtic and Bobby McKean of Rangers.

Opening goal

Celtic took the first half honours, playing with sharpness and speed. But Rangers had Peter McCloy in fine form in goal and he defied Celts until the 42nd minute when Kenny Dalglish got through to score the opener.

● We've won the cup! Happy skipper John Greig and goal hero Alex MacDonald share the champagne in the after-match celebrations.

After the break, Rangers took over. They had Alex O'Hara on for the injured Sandy Jardine and Alex curbed the skills of Dalglish with a fine display of close marking.

GOALS GALORE—EVERY ONE A GEM!

● What a goal! Alex MacDonald makes a spectacular dive to head home the brilliant winner which takes the League Cup back to Ibrox.

Then came two great goals for the Light Blues. First of all Derek Johnstone ran on to a Quinton Young pass in the 56th minute and crashed in a tremendous drive. Then 12 minutes later Cutty picked up a pass just outside the box, tricked Pat McCluskey twice and fired a glorious left foot drive past Peter Latchford for the winner.

The next two meetings came within a week of each other—the League Cup Final on October 25 and the Premier clash at Parkhead on November 1.

Just under 60,000 fans watched the Hampden encounter—and were treated to a winning goal worthy of any Cup Final.

● Cutty Young, after “losing” Pat McCluskey twice, rams home Rangers winner in this 2-1 victory at Ibrox.

● Celtic 'keeper Latchford had no chance with this Derek Johnstone thunderbolt which equalised for the Light Blues in the first Old Firm meeting of the season. The Light blues went on to win 2-1.

It came in the 67th minute. Tommy McLean started it with a pass to Cutty Young, who switched it to Derek Parlane.

Failed to clear

Derek sent over a cross which Celtic's Icelander Johannes Edvaldsson could only partially clear. The ball reached Cutty again, and his header back across goal was met three feet off the ground by the diving Alex MacDonald who bulleted a fabulous header into the net for the only goal of the game.

Tommy Callaghan hit the bar for Celtic in the first half and in the final seconds

WOODWORK TAKES POUNDING

the same player had a fine shot well saved by Stewart Kennedy. But generally Rangers had the edge in a hard game which saw Harry Hood, Pat McCluskey (both Celtic) and Tom Forsyth of Rangers booked.

A week later, the action spotlight switched to Parkhead, and 55,000 fans saw another hard battle. The pace was fast and the incidents furious—starting from the first minute when a Derek Parlane header came thumping back off the bar and finishing with Kenny Dalglish doing the same at the other end in the final minute.

In between Rangers had Derek Parlane and Derek Johnstone booked, Parlane scored a great opener when he took a Tommy McLean pass and rounded the keeper to net and two minutes later Paul Wilson forced the ball home from close range for the equaliser.

That's the kind of action the fans will be looking for today.

IT'S A FACT

TODAY's game is the 159th League meeting between Rangers and Celtic.

Rangers have won 67 of the previous 158 games, drawn 47 and lost 44.

In the process, the Light Blues have scored 245 goals and conceded 207.

Celtic have won 15 times in 79 League visits to Ibrox dating back to 1890-91.

Since play resumed in 1946-47 after the war, Celtic have won only four times at Ibrox.

Rangers best win in the League at Ibrox was 5-0 in 1893-94. Celtic's top victory at Ibrox was 4-0 in 1897-98.

There have been only 11 games in the 158 played so far that have finished in goalless draws ... seven at Ibrox, four at Parkhead.

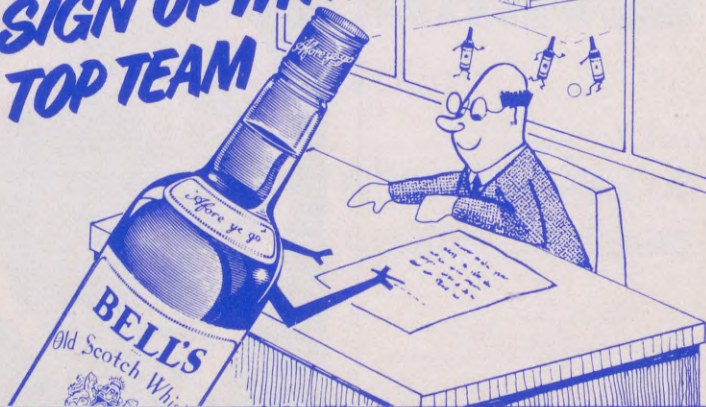

● Derek Parlane hammers one across goal past a diving Edvaldsson, but the danger was cleared.

HEADS YOU WIN!

● It's our popular 'Heads You Win' feature. This is the chance for every fan at a home game to win free Stand seats... if our photographer puts them in the picture! So study the pics on this page. If you have been featured inside one of the white circles, then you have won two free Stand seats. # HAPPY

RANGERS pair Sandy Jardine and Chris Robertson have no trouble remembering their birthdays. You could say they are unforgettable... Sandy on Hogmanay and Chris on Xmas Day.

So both had their share of celebrating in the past week.

And both are hoping that the next year ahead of them contains a bit better fortune.

World Cup man Sandy ran into a serious groin injury at the end of last season, and took a long time to get over it. Then came a bad ankle injury which hampered him for many weeks and cost him his place in the Scotland international squad.

Sandy's New Year and Birthday wish (combined in his case) is for a chance to get 100 per cent sharp again.

The full back was 27 yesterday —and still going strong!

● CHRIS ROBERTSON

BIRTHDAY, LADS

Chris Robertson's wish is much the same as Sandy's—a chance to settle after injury. The youngster was out for a couple of months because of an ankle injury which eventually needed an operation.

Now he's back and scoring goals again—he's a player with the vital knack of being in the right place when a chance comes —but is still not fully tuned.

Best wishes for an injury-free '76 lads!

A touch of the real stuff for young'uns

THE Christmas and New Year holiday period is traditionally a time when the work-rate slows down in most businesses.

But not so in football. There are the holiday games to prepare for, and in the case of Rangers second team coach Joe Mason there is the influx of young talent which arrives over the school holidays.

Joe normally has the "S" form youngsters in on a Tuesday night for training. But over Christmas the night get-together stops and is replaced by day-time sessions.

"I expect we will have something like a couple of dozen youngsters in over the holidays," says Joe.

"They really like to come in during that time to take in the training and atmosphere of the club along with the full-timers.

"We will probably play a series of matches involving all the boys just to see how they are progressing."

One youngster who will be expecting to benefit from the full-time training over the holidays is Derek Strickland, the 16-year-old Edinburgh schoolboy international forward.

Derek has impressed everyone at Ibrox with his speed and skill and there are hopes he will develop into a top-line player.

● JOE MASON . . . "busier than ever."

"There will be a lot of work for the boys as well—and the reserve regulars," says Joe.

"This is the time of the year when every ounce of strength and stamina is needed on the heavy grounds.

"Everyone is going to be busier than ever—including me!"
