Fast, Reliable, Controlled.
A different class.

Three outstanding performers.

Having a reputation for a breathtaking turn of speed, consistently stunning performances and steadfast reliability does tend to mark you out for special attention.

Of course, being a member of the right team with a background of experience and success also helps.

Ian Skelly has over 30 years experience in the car game. His reputation for integrity, quality and quite simply the highest standards to be found is in a class of its own.

And that's something he has in common with a few other things around here.

From the Manager...

WE started our League Cup campaign last Wednesday with a trip to Dumfries and a match against local side Queen of the South

The match ended in a 4-1 victory for us and it was pleasing to see all three of our recognised strikers, Brian McClair, Maurice Johnston and Alan McInally get their name on the scoresheet.

Paul McStay was unable to start the match through injury and during the game his brother Willie had to be helped from the field with an injury which will keep him out of action for at least another three weeks.

Our visitors tonight, Brechin City, scored three times in their victory over Falkirk in the last round. They have earned a place in this round as much as any side and deserve as much respect.

On their last visit to Celtic Park, Ian Fleming's men proved that they are not an easy side to score against. They are not expected to win tonight and therefore have nothing to lose. I am very much aware of the dangers of taking things for granted, especially in a Cup-tie knockout situation.

Nothing will be won easily tonight and nothing will be taken for granted, but I hope you, the spectator, get a game to remember as we aim for the fourth round.

A Previous Highlight

BRECHIN CITY fans will remember a trip to Celtic Park on Saturday, August 27, 1983 when today's two adversaries met in the second game of a two-leg League Cup clash.

Jim Melrose had given Celtic a 1-0 lead with an 87th minute score in the first game at Glebe Park.

In the match at Celtic Park, which ended in no scoring, Willie McStay started a Celtic first team match for the first time, being called in at the start to replace Tom McAdam who was injured.

A crowd of 8,502 turned out for that match.

It's a fact ...

BRECHIN CITY were founded in 1906 with the amalgamation of Brechin Hearts and Brechin Harp — two junior clubs. Brechin City played their first competitive match against Montrose at Links Park, Montrose, on August 15, 1906. Brechin won the match by one goal to nil.

The Goalscorer ...

Our visitors at a glance ...

DEREK NEILSON (Goalkeeper): Arrived at Glebe Park from Dundee United in 1980. Also had a spell with Meadowbank Thistle. Derek had a shut-out on his last visit to Celtic Park.

DAVIE WATT (Defender): David is the club's longest serving player. He signed in 1974 from Camoustie Panmure. Usually operates at full-back.

JIM KERR (Defender): Previously with Airdrieonians, Jim signed for Brechin City from Raith Rovers in 1984 in an exchange deal. He has operated in midfield but has played at full-back this season.

ALAN MCKENZIE (Defender): Alan joined the club from Arbroath during the close season. He has settled in well at the back.

IAN FLEMING (Defender): Previously with Aberdeen, Kilmarnock, Sheffield Wednesday and Dundee. Ian has been player/manager of the club since joining in 1982-83. He took them to the second division championship and has consolidated their position in the first division.

DOUG SCOTT (Midfield): Signed from Dundee at the start of 1983-84 season. Formerly with Downfield Juniors Dougie has now claimed a regular place in the side.

DOUGIE LEES (Forward): Dougie arrived at Brechin City from Whitehill Welfare in 1984. Scored twice in the club's opening League game against East Fife.

DONALD PARK (Midfield): Brought to Glebe Park by Ian Fleming to be his player/coach. Signed during the close season from Hearts, Donald has plenty of experience of playing against Premier League opposition.

KEN EADIE (Forward): A former Kilmarnock player, Ken signed for Brechin City in 1983. He has been a regular goalscorer since joining the club and scored one of the goals that brought City to Celtic Park.

DANNY POWELL (Forward): Another player who played for Arbroath before joining Brechin City earlier this year. Netted the fourth goal on the opening day of the season against East Fife.

JOHN PERRY (Forward): Signed earlier in the year from Dunfermline Athletic. John is an old-fashioned type winger. Scored the third goal last Wednesday in the previous round against Falkirk.

IAN STEWART (Midfield): Strong tackling midfield player Ian signed as a defender in 1981 after spells at Dundee United and Forfar Athletic. Has been on the bench recently.

GRAEME PAYNE (Midfield): Signed for Brechin City earlier this year from Arbroath. Graeme has plenty of Premier League experience with Dundee United but failed to command a regular place in the side. He spent time on loan to Morton before going to Arbroath.

BRIAN REID (Defender): Brian signed for Brechin City in 1975 from Arbroath. Another player who is at home in midfield or defence.

JOHN HAY (Defender): Joined the club from Falkirk in 1982. Was the club captain last season but has been out of the side so far this season.

Paul's late return

PAUL MCGUGAN played a competitive match on Saturday for the first time this season, having missed out on the action because of a suspension carried over from last term.

He told us how he feels: "It was very frustrating. The only game I had played since the season kicked off was a challenge match against Petershill Juniors when I turned out in a Celtic/Rangers select side.

"It was good to get the match practice but I couldn't wait to get back into the competitive game. I've got my sights set firmly on the Premier League this season.

"Having tasted the top level in our 1-1 draw with Rangers at the end of last season I know that is where I want to play every week, but Celtic have some very good defenders and I know I'll need to play consistently well to get a chance.

"I was over my suspension on Saturday and now expect to play in the Old Firm reserve match at Ibrox. Although we won't have the same size of crowd as our first team counterparts, the game will be every bit as keenly contested.

"For most Glasgow boys playing for one half of the Old Firm against the other is a dream and we always like to see our dreams ending happily, so on Saturday only a win will satisfy me — for both Celtic's sides.

The Old Bhoys ...

JOE DODDS

Joe Dodds and Celtic team-mates gather near the centre circle at the start of the riot during the 1908-09 Scottish Cup final.

JOE DODDS was the last survivor of the 20 players who in the years 1905 to 1910 played a part in the Celtic teams that won the Championship six years in succession. He joined Celtic in 1908 from Carluke and remained on the playing staff until 1923 when he moved to Queen of the South, although during this period with Celtic he spent one season with Cowdenbeath.

Joe was regarded as a defender of wonderful versatility and the half-back line of Shaw, McNair and Dodds reels easily off the tongue of even today's Celtic's supporters. It is stated that McNair and Dodds were the first full-backs to perfect the art of the pass back.

In season 1913/14 when Celtic won the League Championship the team conceded only 14 goals in 38 matches.

In a remarkable run of 23 matches in the League campaign they remained unbeaten scoring 52 goals for the loss of only two.

Dodds also took part in the 1909 Scottish Cup final between Celtic and Rangers which was withheld because of a riot.

He also had the unusual distinction of playing in a Celtic side, already League champions, which in 1916 played two matches on the same day due to fixture congestion. Celtic played Raith Rovers at Celtic Park winning 6-0 in the afternoon and defeated Motherwell 3-1 at Fir Park in the evening. Dodds also represented his country against England, Ireland and Wales and turned out for the Scottish League on many occasions.

Joe Dodds played 351 games for Celtic and only 14 players can better this record. After a distinguished football career Joe lived out many happy years until he died in 1965. He will always be remembered as a great Celt.

MY TOP THREE

TONIGHT it is the turn of Peter Grant to choose his favourite three records to be played at half-time. Peter's favourite groups are Simple Minds and U2, he also likes David Bowie and his top three comes from those artists:

- 1 Glittering Prizes Simple Minds
- 2 Sunday Bloody Sunday U2
- 3 Let's Dance David Bowie

This time last year . . .

AIRDRIEONIANS 0, CELTIC 4 (Attendance 11,411)

AIRDRIE had made the headlines seven days earlier by convincingly beating Aberdeen and knocking them out of the League Cup.

Early Celtic efforts saw Alan McNally and Peter Grant each put the ball just over and John Colquhoun head just wide.

Celtic opened the scoring in the 23rd minute when a Brian McClair cross was knocked into the net by Tommy Burns.

Nine minutes later a short corner move involving John Colquhoun and Paul McStay eventually put Alan McNally in a scoring position at the far post and he took his chance well to make it 2-0 for Celtic.

The third was scored by Airdrie local, Peter Grant. Three minutes before half-time, Brian McClair, also from Airdrie, sent the teenage midfielder past the offside trap with a great pass. The 'keeper came out to meet Grant, but the young Celt pushed the ball under him.

Twelve minutes from the end, Brian McClair scored to make it 4-0 with a volley from 25 yards.

Do not go to Madrid

CELTIC'S decision, in common with all other Scottish clubs, not to have supporters follow them in Europe this season was taken in the best interests of the club and its supporters.

Clearly in the present climate, any sort of disturbance or trouble concerning any Scottish side in Europe could land the club in serious trouble. Celtic will not obtain any tickets from Atletico Madrid for anyone other than the official Celtic party.

We appeal to Celtic supporters everywhere to stand by this decision. We are sorry if you are disappointed at not being able to follow Celtic abroad and we appreciate that many Celtic supporters have travelled the world with the club without being involved in any trouble, but the risks and penalties are too great for Celtic to take any chances.

Reserve Talk . . .

WHILE you were reading about our victory over Hearts in the last programme, we were playing at Fir Park in Motherwell and dropped two points.

Motherwell fielded a side which contained a few experienced men, but I am not making excuses for us losing. On the day we matched them and in the second half in particular we began to take the upper hand.

As we pressed forward, however, we were caught on the break with 15 minutes left to play and conceded the only goal of the match.

Paul Chalmers was back in the side for the first time after injury and Jim McKechnie had returned from suspension.

Peter Latchford had another very good game in goal and young central defenders Lex Baillie and Derek Whyte have done a great job while Paul McCugan and Ronnie Coyle are suspended.

On the afternoon we were unlucky to concede a goal but we had our share of chances and just did not put them away.

How we lined up: Latchford; Traynor and McGee; Shepherd, Baillie and Whyte; Chalmers and Walsh; Fraser; McKechnie and Archdeacon. Substitutes: Kean (Walsh), Mills (Fraser).

Looking back . . .

FIVE YEARS AGO

DATE: AUGUST 27, 1980

IT all started to go wrong for Celtic when they went to Annfield for the first leg of a second round League Cup tie on a Wednesday night and left the Stirling ground with a 1-0 defeat. The game was watched by a crowd of 6,000 and it was one that Celtic should never have lost. They attacked the Stirling defence for most of the first half, but they couldn't put the ball into the net.

The second half started with the same pattern and Frank McGarvey was desperately unlucky to see his 25-yard shot hit the crossbar. Then a shock for Celtic. Stirling full-back Nicol sent over a cross that fell to winger Irvine who beat Pat Bonner with a low shot from 12 yards to put Stirling into the lead.

Celtic tried desperately for the equaliser but it never came and they were left to overcome the one-nil defeat at Parkhead the following Saturday.

TEN YEARS AGO

DATE: AUGUST 27, 1975

CELTIC travelled to Pittodrie Stadium in Aberdeen for a League Cup match and gave their large travelling support something to be pleased about on the long journey home in the shape of a 2-0 victory. Celtic's scorers were Lennox and Ritchie and the full team read: Latchford; McGrain and Lynch; McCluskey, MacDonald and Edvaldsson; McNamara and Wilson; Dalglish; Callaghan and Lennox. Substitutes: Connolly (McCluskey), Ritchie (Wilson).

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

DATE: AUGUST 26, 1970

CELTIC completed their League Cup sectional programme with a 2-2 draw against Dundee United at Tannadice. Full details of the match were: DUNDEE UNITED 2, CELTIC 2 (Hay, Macari); CELTIC: Williams; Hay and Gemmell; Murdoch, Connolly and Brogan; Callaghan and Johnstone; Hood; Macari and Hughes. Substitute: McGrain (Hood).

With Celtic having already qualified for the League Cup quarter-finals this match was of little importance. However both teams put on an entertaining display with the 2-2 result being just about right.
